GOMPERS SAYS PEOPLE WANT IT

Declares if Covenant Were Submitted it Would be Overwhelmingly Accepted

Labor Draft Would Help in the Reunion of Working People, He Says

MONTREAL, June 14.—It is "pitiable" that the United States has not ratified the League of Nations, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, declared here today, in an address before the federation convention. If the league covenant were submitted to the American people, "without any other entangling questions, it would be overwhelmingly accepted," he said.

"It is pitiable that the United States has not ratified the League of Nations," said Mr. Gompers, "but has forgotten the effort of the nations of the world to prevent another horrible conflict such as that which started six years ago."

The labor draft of the league covenant, he added, would "help workers in the most backward countries."

Mr. Gompers made a strong appeal to the convention to support the league and "lend a helping hand to the toilers of the smaller countries, and aid them to take their places among the civilized nations of the world."

FIREMEN HOLD MEMORIAL SERVICE

The Lowell Firemen's Memorial association, an organization devoted to the remembrance of departed members of the local fire department, held its annual memorial service yesterday. Graves of late members of the department were decorated with flowers by a delegation of 30 firemen, members of the night shift. The visits to the cemeteries began at 10 o'clock in the forenoon and continued for several hours.

REPUBLICANS ARE SATISFIED

Local G. O. P. Members Take Kindly to Nomination of Senator Harding

Claim Nomination of Coolidge as Vice-President Was Very Good Move

The nomination of Senator Warren G. Harding of Ohio as the republican candidate for the presidency of the United States at Chicago on Saturday meets with fairly general approval among Lowell republicans, although there was a strong Wood sentiment evident here before the convention.

In a series of thumbnail interviews with representative republicans this morning a representative of The Sun found that the nomination of Governor Calvin Coolidge of this state for the vice presidency has served to wipe away whatever disappointment might have been felt at the failure of one of the "big three" of the republican convention—Wood, Johnson and Lowden—to land first place. It was generally agreed that Harding will not be a candidate to sweep either the party or the country with enthusiasm such as might have been the case if one of the

ACTIVITIES OF THE COMMERCE CHAMBER

To inform the members of the activities of the Lowell chamber of commerce, the first of a series of monthly meetings of the entire membership will be held at Memorial hall on Tuesday evening, June 22, with dinner served at 6.30 o'clock. In no wise should this meeting be confused with the annual banquet of the chamber, which comes at a much later date.

It is the intention of the officers and directors to hold these membership gatherings at least once each month after the coming vacation season in order to give all members an opportunity to discuss the work being done and to suggest future activities.

At next Tuesday's meeting a report of the accomplishments of the organization for the first months of its existence will be presented by Secretary-Manager Geo. F. Wells and the members will be urged to freely discuss its future program. As a speaker for this meeting, the chamber is fortunate in securing Dr. George Dugan of Trenton, N. J. Those who had an opportunity to hear Dr. Dugan during the reorganization campaign will recall him as an exceptionally interesting speaker and his presence insures a profitable and enjoyable evening.

Already reservations are being received in quantity and on account of the limited seating facilities of Memorial hall, Monday, June 21, has been set as the limit date for the receipt of reservations.

CASE AGAINST CITY OF LOWELL

Property Owners Seek Further Remuneration for Land Lost in Seizure

Plot of 392,866 Square Feet Was Taken for City Water Works' Need

The last week of the present session of the civil division of the superior court began this morning, with an unusually large number of spectators, witnesses and lawyers in attendance.

The case on trial was that of Apostolakis A. Johnson and George E. Vozzolas against the city of Lowell, for recovery of additional remuneration for land on Pawtucket boulevard, taken by the city for water works purposes. Judge Fosdick was on the bench.

The plaintiff's declaration asserted that the municipal council had voted to take the land by right of eminent domain May 27, 1919, and that $3350 was awarded in payment. The plot of land contains 392,866 square feet. John J. Hogan, in opening for the plaintiffs, said that the land taken by the city had been purchased by his clients in 1907, with the intention of establishing thereon a Greek colony. He said that the land adjoined Perry road, over which people from New Hampshire travelled 150 years ago to a ferry across the Merrimack river. The principal building on the property was described as having been used as a tavern in the old days.

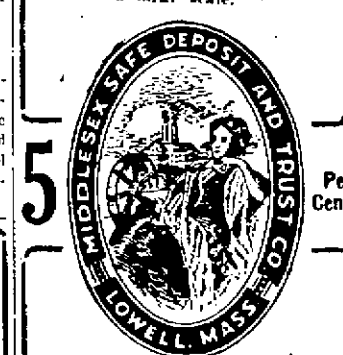

Melvin B. Smith, civil engineer, was the first witness for the plaintiffs. Questioned by John J. Hogan, the witness told of surveying the plot of land in 1903 and staking out streets thereon at that time. He said that the last time he had visited the property, a few months ago, all evidence that the streets had been laid out had apparently disappeared.

William C. Purcell, register of deeds of Middlesex county, read from the records a description of the boundaries of the land taken by the city.

Albert T. Ryan, a Lowell real estate dealer, told of having bought and sold land in the vicinity of the plot taken by the city. He said he had been familiar with the plot since 1907. He said he had been over it a number of times and had seen streets cut through it. He said it was a very desirable plot for building purposes, that the air in the vicinity was free from dirt and smoke and that it was readily accessible to the city. He considered it one of the best residential sites in the Merrimack valley.

The witness said he estimated the value of the land taken as being $11,755 at the time of taking. He estimated the value of the land taken as being $11,755 at the time of taking. He estimated the value of the land taken as being $11,755 at the time of taking.

FLAG DAY IS OBSERVED HERE

Approach of Graduation Exercises Restricts Today's Observance in Schools

Lowell Lodge of Elks Will Hold Usual Flag Day Program Tonight

Patriotic Organizations to Conduct Union Observance in Memorial Hall

Today, June 14, is Flag day, set apart for the honoring of the national emblem and Lowell is observing the occasion in common with other cities of Massachusetts who have heeded the proclamation of Governor Coolidge calling for a fitting recognition of the occasion.

The local schools held informal observances but the approach of graduation and the manifold details to be prepared in connection with the latter event prevented elaborate programs of flag day exercises. In most instances, Continued on Page 11

"UNCLE DUDLEY" ON WAY TO ALASKA

Dudley L. Page, known to everyone in Lowell as Uncle Dudley, spryest of local Civil war veterans and ranked high among the city's business men, left Boston at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, bound for the far reaches of Alaska. The trip was prompted by mining interests but will be full of pleasure. He will be away for approximately three months.

The trip has been under contemplation by Mr. Page for more than a year. In fact, all preliminary arrangements were completed in 1919 when state guard duty called him to Boston on the occasion of the police strike and postponement was necessary.

At that time he told the writer that ever since his last trip to British Columbia, 17 years ago, he held a hankering to return once more to the far northwest and that he never would be contented until he did so.

While this is Mr. Page's first journey into this country's rich possession in the north, he has made three trips to British Columbia—in 1909, 1901 and 1902. He will reach his 75th birthday anniversary next October, hopefully as hale and hearty and as full of vitality as he appeared when setting out on his 1000 mile journey on Saturday.

Estimated the value of the building as being $1500.

Cross-examined by City Solicitor William D. Regan, the witness denied that he had any knowledge that fogs were frequent in the vicinity of the Johnson-Vozzolas land or that the land was at times submerged by an overflowing brook.

Witness said it was true that cost of grading streets and disposing of house lots would have to be deducted from the estimated value he had placed on the property.

"Is the house 300 years old?" asked Mr. Regan.

"I don't know."

"Were cattle kept in some of the rooms?"

"I don't think so, a year ago."

The witness said that when he visited the land last Friday, he found the house in a dilapidated condition and that if it was in the same condition last spring, his estimated valuation of $1500 would be excessive. He said he thought it was in better condition when the property was taken by the city.

Witness admitted that in placing his valuation on the property he had failed to make allowance for the various costs of preparing the land for sale, carrying and other charges.

Crowds Cheer Senator Harding, the Republican Nominee, as He Arrives at Washington

AFTERMATH OF CONVENTION

Talk of Third Party With Sen. La Follette at Head of Ticket

Harding's Manager Urges National Committee to Take Prompt and Snappy Action

CHICAGO, June 14.—Declaration by Amos Pinchot, member of the committee of 48, that there positively would be a new party presidential candidate in the field; rumors that Senator La Follette would head a ticket as presidential candidate, and announcement that the campaign in behalf of Senator Warren G. Harding, the republican presidential nominee would be started promptly, were the outstanding developments following the republican convention.

The statement by Mr. Pinchot declared that the "republican party has driven out of representation in its councils the millions of voters who followed Roosevelt, Johnson and La Follette, and that the new party will represent these voters and 'present a definite and constructive program.'"

Reports concerning Senator La Follette's possible candidacy were less clearly defined and in some instances were linked with declarations made in behalf of the committee of 48.

Harry M. Daugherty, pre-convention campaign manager for Senator Harding, began preparations for the presidential nominee's campaign by requesting the national committee to take "prompt, snappy and energetic action in placing the merits of the republican issues before the voters of the country. Party managers, it was said, would start the campaign soon after the democratic convention is held and would not wait until Senator Harding and Governor Coolidge are officially notified of their nomination.

ALLEGED SHOPLIFTER IN POLICE COURT

Florence Moreana, a woman of 44 years, who claimed her home to be on South street was arrested Saturday night in Pollard's store by Inspector Walsh of the police department and was arraigned in police court today. One of the floor walkers in the store had noticed the woman taking some soap from one of the basement counters and had brought her to the office where other articles, alleged to have been stolen, were found in her bag. Investigation proved that she had stolen articles also from the Woolworth company, F. A. Nelson and Harry Best. Inspector Walsh told of visiting her home and reported that there were other goods there which seemed to have been worn once or twice and then cast aside and which he claimed were stolen. He said also that there were several children in the house. A child's dress, sneakers, candy, and other pieces of clothing were found in her possession Friday night. The defendant, the second wife of her husband, testified that the expense of keeping eight children (five of whom she had with her husband) remained in the house and did not work. To allow for further investigation and to inform the state board of charities of the matter the case was continued until Saturday for disposition.

SUN'S BULLETIN SERVICE EXCELLENT

The results of the bulletin service given in Merrimack square Saturday night by The Sun are eminently satisfactory to spectators and editors alike. Without the aid of any mechanical device aimed to accentuate speed in the publication of wire flashes from the Chicago Coliseum, this paper had a clear two-minute lead over the Courier-Citizen in the bulletin announcing the nomination of Senator Harding. The Sun's bulletin was securely in place a full minute before the C.C.'s electric "snail" ground out the second line of its paragraph. Moreover this paper's bulletin, in a most conspicuous position, could be seen from all parts of the square.

The regular 7 o'clock edition on Saturday afternoon carried every phase of the convention through the motion for recess at 4 o'clock (western daylight saving time) and bulletin service was begun shortly after the convention reconvened at 5.10 local time. The service was continued in operation until after the nomination of the Massachusetts governor for the vice presidency.

Match Law Violation

Michael J. Husson, charged with keeping matches in his store unlawfully, was fined $10. Investigation by the police and fire departments of a recent fire on Merrimack street led to the belief that the fire was caused by the matches which were not in a metal container with a cover. The law makes offenders of match regulations liable to a heavy fine, but inasmuch as the damage was to the defendant's own stock and as there was a settlement made with the insurance company, the court considered the above fine sufficient. Chief Saunders mentioned that there were many others in the city who were violating the law in the keeping of matches and were thus liable to arrest and severe punishment.

Drunk Offenders

The list of drunks over the week-end was pretty heavy and the probation officer released five first offenders. John Buckley, Thomas Lindsay and Michael Burns were each fined $10 for drunkenness, and John F. Sheehy, on parole from the state farm, arrested on the same offense, was found guilty but given one more chance by the court.

Boston Man and His Wife Died of Poisoning, Say Physicians

Analysis of Contents of Bottle of Liquid Found in Room Ordered

NEW YORK, June 14.—George A. Hamilton and his wife, Irene, died today, victims of wood alcohol poisoning. In the opinion of physicians who attended them. Medical Examiner Leary ordered an analysis of the contents of a bottle of colorless liquid found in the room in a South End lodging house. The man told the landlady early today that his wife was seriously ill and that he was feeling badly. Physicians who were called found Mrs. Hamilton dead and sent her husband to a hospital where he died soon afterward.

AMBULANCE CASHES

H. B. Quimby, a resident of Lacina, N. At 1 o'clock this afternoon it was stated at the hospital that although the man's condition had improved a little, he was still on the dangerous list.

At 11.15 o'clock the ambulance was called to the Pawtucket school in Mammoth road, where one of the pupils, Susan Seavey, of 35 Sparks street, was in an unconscious condition. She was removed to the Lowell General hospital, where it was stated this afternoon she had regained consciousness and that her condition was not considered serious.

CIRCUSES COMBINED IN GIGANTIC SHOW

Not since the beginning of tented amusements has there been any event so important to the circus patron as the announcement that the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey circuses have been combined into one mammoth show.

For years the acknowledged giants of the sawdust world, these two institutions now comprise the biggest and most remarkable traveling organization that has yet toured America. For more than two decades the shows, as separate concerns, presented the world's foremost artistic artists, the two greatest managers in existence and all else that comprised the cream of the circus world. Now the famous showmen have selected the very best of both shows and centralized it in a great, new circus known as the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Shows combined. This super-circus opened its season at the Madison Square garden in New York city. It played there for many weeks. A million persons saw its many wonders. There, as elsewhere, it has been proclaimed the most gigantic undertaking in the history of amusements. When the aggregation exhibits here those who visit it will see even more than New York's million saw. For, large as is Madison Square garden, it could not accommodate all the circus. It requires the specially constructed tents used on tour to do that.

Some idea of the immensity of the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Combined may be had when it is stated that there is one trained elephant act that comprises a "quarter of a million pounds of elephants." The giant Thespians finish their number in ensemble with a line of ponderous forms that extend along the length of one entire side of the hippodrome track. That suggests the bigness of the main tent program. As for the menagerie it is filled with marvels. In place of two or three giraffes such as heretofore been offered, the visitor will find eight of these elongated rarities ranging from "youngsters" to giraffes measuring more than 20 feet in height.

The circus horses—outnumbering all previous records as to totals—have been selected with the greatest care. The street parade is the best and longest ever presented. The men and women stars are the foremost in dancing. There are scores of dumb actors. No such number of clowns were ever before carried by any circus. For those who love the pomp and grandeur of pageantry there will be the great introductory display. This gorgeous review opens the main tent program at all performances. It is presented with a bigness and wealth of display in keeping with the rest of this—"The most colossal circus ever organized." Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Combined will exhibit here Friday, June 25.

TIPS FROM SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

In the kitchen of her own home Sister Mary cooks daily for a family of four adults. She brought to her kitchen an understanding of the chemistry of cooking, gained from study of domestic science in a state university. Consequently the advice she offers is a happy combination of theory and practice. Every recipe she gives in her own, first tried out and served at her family table.

(Copyright, 1920, N.E.A.)

Before using jars or cans for canning fruit it is necessary to sterilize them.

Wash the cans in hot soap suds. Rinse in hot water. Let cans cool, then fill with cold water. Put in a kettle on a rack and surround with cold water. Heat slowly to the boiling point and boil ten minutes. Remove from water, empty, and if possible, fill with hot. Let the covers stand in boiling water ten minutes.

Aside from sterilizing the jars this boiling process toughens the glass. But in these days of "safety first" it's a good plan to put the jars on a cloth wrung out of hot water while filling them with boiling fruit and syrup.

Menu for Tomorrow

Breakfast—Oranges, broiled bacon, graham corns, coffee.

Luncheon—Strawberry fritters, spinach salad, toasted muffins, tea.

Dinner—Asparagus soup, broiled fish, baked potatoes, string beans, shredded cabbage, lemon custard pie, coffee.

When choosing a fish for broiling pick out one that is not too thick. Herring broil nicely and are almost the only small fish that bone well. Sear quickly, but reduce the heat and cook slowly. Too much heat draws out the juices and dries the fish.

STRAWBERRY FRITTERS

1½ cups of flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
2 tablespoons powdered sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
2-3 cup water
1 egg
2 cups strawberries

Separate yolks and whites of eggs. Beat yolks till thick and lemon colored. Sift flour, baking powder, sugar and salt together. Add alternately with water to yolks. Add berries. Beat whites till stiff and dry and fold into dough. Drop from the spoon into hot deep fat. Drain on brown paper and serve with maple syrup.

LEMON CUSTARD PIE

2 eggs
1 tablespoon butter
1 cup sugar
1 lemon (Juice and grated rind)

1 tablespoon flour
¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup milk

Separate whites and yolks of eggs. Beat yolks. Add dry ingredients. Add butter. Add lemon juice and grated rind. Mix well. Add milk. Beat whites of eggs till stiff and dry and fold into mixture. Pour into a pie dish lined with pastry (not baked) and bake in a moderate oven till firm to the touch.

NEW ELECTRIC ORGAN

Improvements that include the installation of a new electric organ are under consideration at the Palge Street Baptist church. The trustees of the church have given the necessary authority for the purchase of the new instrument and a financial campaign already is under way. The choir loft also will be greatly enlarged and other alterations made on the interior.

MOST men don't know it, but they begin to get bald at the age of sixteen and they usually finish before forty. Any Medical Specialist on Hair can look at a Dandruff-covered head and tell just about when the first white spot will appear. Dandruff means—NO HAIR.

Important Medical Announcement

WE are now ready to offer a guaranteed public test of our discovery of a Preparation that will completely arrest the progress of Seborrheic (or Dandruff) germ that is destroying the hair of half the civilized world; a Preparation which, at the same time, will act like a food for the hair in producing a new and most remarkably luxuriant growth.

This statement is made over the signature of the President of F. A. Thompson & Company, one of the largest and oldest Pharmaceutical Houses in America, a house which for many years has manufactured medicines for your physicians and druggists. We are in no sense a so-called "Hair Tonic" concern, this discovery having been made in the regular course of Laboratory work with this announcement coming at the end of a four years' test on many thousands of cases.

The Great Hair "Scourge"

Practically the only direct destroyer of hair is a germ or micro-organism that attacks the Sebaceous Glands. These glands lie under the skin, near the root of the hair.

When the glands are attacked by this germ, they pour their oily contents up through the scalp in an effort to get rid of their deadly enemy. In doing this, they destroy themselves and finally the hair itself.

This oily content crystalizes on the scalp and is what is known as "dandruff". To the medical profession, the disease which causes Dandruff is known as Seborrhea.

The Dangers of Dandruff

The great danger of dandruff is that it is so easy to get rid of without getting rid of the cause. Dandruff is only a fat and almost any solution will wash it off. Meanwhile these germs that cause it, go on multiplying by millions beneath the scalp.

Our Remarkable Discovery

Oddly enough we were searching for a "Food for the Hair" that would so nourish these glands as to overcome the destroying action of the dandruff germ, just as a strong person throws off disease.

But, almost by chance we discovered that this very "Food for Hair" we had developed purely for its nourishing effect, had within itself, a sufficiently strong "bactericidal", or germ-destroying property, to arrest the development of the germ itself.

No Alcohol

Our final problem was to keep these properties in solution without alcohol. For alcohol will dry the hair, make it brittle and turn it grey. This last problem was finally solved and our work was done.

Four Years' Test

Our tests have now covered four years and the results have been such as to amaze even us who have been more than conservative.

We have found the Remedy that will destroy the germ that destroys the hair—a Remedy which, at the same time, will feed the hair and give it a beautiful gloss and luxuriance.

We could not afford to jeopardize our standing with the medical profession by making such statements unless they were absolutely true.

We have sought to give this Preparation a trade-name easy to remember and have called it

FAMO

No More Thin, Sick Hair or Baldheads

It doesn't seem possible, but it is really true that this scourge to the hair of all civilized peoples can be destroyed at last. There is no longer any need for scaly heads and sickly hair. And, except in cases where baldness is inherited, or where there is a skin disease, there is no longer any need for another head becoming bald.

When you see your hair taking on richness and luxuriance waviness and life, when you can feel the health returning to it in a natural way, when you can watch these changes from day to day as the germ is destroyed and the hair nourished, you will realize what a remarkable discovery FAMO is.

There are a quarter of a million bottles of FAMO for this National Public Test, but of course, that means only a limited supply for each city. So read the guarantee in the next column and get your bottle now.

Fully Guaranteed

We guarantee the return of your money if you do not see results yourself satisfactory to yourself. You are to be the jury and the judge.

We guarantee that FAMO will give to your hair a new luxuriance, health, vigor and growth which you will be able to see for yourself.

We guarantee that the progress of the Seborrheic germ will be entirely arrested and that not only will the Dandruff disappear but that the cause of it will also be removed. The itching and falling hair will stop and your scalp will clear up entirely in a matter of days.

$1 Size Guaranteed

Trial Size 35c.

We have proved our discovery on thousands of heads. We want to let the final decision rest on your head.

Buy the large $1 bottle in the regular way. Use it daily as directed. If it does not bring results satisfactory to you, return the empty bottle to your druggist together with the guarantee below and you get your money back.

You can feel satisfied that an old conservative concern like this must have full knowledge of what this Discovery will accomplish when over a quarter of a Million Dollars is at stake in this first guarantee.

LEAGUE COUNCIL TO HEAR PERSIA'S APPEAL

LONDON, June 14.—Persia's appeal for protection against Russian bolshevik aggression, was expected to be one of the first subjects discussed by the council of the League of Nations at the opening of its executive session in St. James' palace late this afternoon. The session will continue for two days, with the probability that the bare outlines of the conclusions reached will be announced on Wednesday.

In view of the hands off policy of the council with regard to the Polish offensive, some observers of the trend of affairs feel that the Persian situation raises a problem almost impossible for the council as now constituted, to solve.

MASS. DELEGATES START FOR WEST

The advance guard of Massachusetts delegates to the democratic national convention is on its way to San Francisco. It left Boston yesterday in a special car that is routed to travel via Montreal, across Canada to Vancouver, and thence leisurely down the Pacific coast to the convention city. This trip is to cost the delegates about $100 more than the trip by the regular route which has been selected by the committee on transportation. The party making the trip by the latter route is to start next Sunday.

In the party that left yesterday were Daniel H. Coakley, delegate from the 13th district; District Attorney Joseph C. Pelletier, delegate at large; Francis J. Finerman, president of the democratic club of Massachusetts; Mayor Edward Quinn and Edward Coughlin of Cambridge, delegates from the 5th district; Francis Costello, 11th district delegate; Patrick Bowen, 12th district delegate; Daniel J. Bradley of Somerville, 9th district delegate; John T. Kennedy, 11th district alternate; and a number of party leaders including United States District Attorney Daniel J. Gallagher. Senator David I. Walsh was not a member of the party. He has two commencement addresses to deliver during the week and later will go to Washington from which place he will start on the trip to San Francisco.

THE SYMBOL
(Copyright, 1920, N.E.A.)
What is it but a form of fate,
That symbol which we call the Bar,
A ball of cotton, over-tall,
A worm's cocoon, a sheaf's lost wool?
A scrap of rag? But in its seams
Are stitched men's memories and dreams:
And down the trumpet, lyre and harp
Are woven its soft and warm;
And pregnant hopes and deep desires,
And loved of our sons as of our sires,
How shall you tear this sacred cloth,
Whose shuttle is a people's heart?
What is it but a dash of dye,
Which we have streaked across the sky,
Making obedience, proud but prone,
As heathen to their gods of stone?
A dash of dye? So it appears
The color of our faiths and fears,
Our toll and turmoil toward the light,
Our wounds of wrong in quest of right,
And when our wounds are turned to sears
We symbolize them into stars!
So not the symbol makes the legends,
But that for which the symbol stands.
What is it but a gasp of pain,
To which we bow the head and blush,
A sonic phrase, a sibyl's breath,
To lure men even unto death?
So be it, then, and rest content,
For what is life but sentiment?
We live, we love and through the years
Our smiles are faded of our tears,
Strength dies, love weeps, but turns away
To guard a laughing child at play,
And, playing, spies the flag above
Alone to symbol life—and love.

Senator Walsh is of the opinion that the convention will be a long one, and that there will have to be a gradual sifting out of candidates before a final choice is made.

As far as can be ascertained a majority of the Massachusetts delegation is divided in its support between McAdoo and Palmer with the sentiment in favor of the former possibly slightly predominating. There is some sentiment for Edwards and Governor Cox of Ohio is becoming more popular.

The consensus of opinion among the delegates, however, so far as it can be ascertained appears to be that the delegates will go into the convention with open minds ready to vote for the candidate that circumstances and developments shall seem to show is likely to have the best chance of winning at the polls.

The rumor is being circulated that National Committee Coughlin of Fall River may yet decide to become a candidate for reelection, and if such should prove to be the case, there appears to be little doubt but that he can have the place without serious opposition.

KNOCKED OVERBOARD

E. B. Taber, Wearing Rubber Boots and Oilskins Picked up Near Point of Collapse

NEW BEDFORD, June 14.—E. B. Taber of Montauk, L. I., numbered among the victims of the sea when his cabin cruiser motor boat Del Rey was picked up as a derelict drifting in the open sea 45 miles southeast of No Man's Land, Friday and brought to this port Saturday, arrived in New Bedford today to claim his boat. Mr. Taber is an agent in the employ of the conservation commission of the state of New York, maintaining hatcheries at Montauk. Last Friday he was engaged in setting lobster pots and was knocked overboard by a heavy sea and precipitated into the water fully dressed, wearing rubber boots and oilskins.

After being in the sea 45 minutes and almost on the point of collapse owing to his cumbersome clothing, Taber was picked up by Edward R. Tuttle, engaged in the same business. He was landed at Fort Pond bay, L. I., and today came to New Bedford to claim the Del Rey, which was towed here Saturday by Capt. William B. Macdonald, master of the steamer Jophias of Gloucester.

ECHOES OF CHELMSFORD TOWN MEETING

KNOCKED OVERBOARD

E. B. Taber, Wearing Rubber Boots and Oilskins Picked up Near Point of Collapse

North Chelmsford was, of course, largely represented at the special town meeting held at the Centre last Friday evening. For importance interest and excitement, the meeting lacked nothing in these respects.

The prologue of the entire affair had its origin at the special hearings which were held at both the Centre and the North during the same week. The meeting was called for the purpose of interesting the parents and citizens in the present and future school requirements by means of a survey which had been prepared by the members of the school committee, who took this opportunity to offer various suggestions in connection therewith.

It might not have been the hottest, but it was certainly the lengthiest special town meeting held for many years past.

Although the day as it will be remembered, had been warm throughout, there were moments when the temperature took a sudden jump when the exchange of "hot shots" were going over the top.

Taken all in all, it was a successful meeting as far as results are concerned. The finance committee won some of their points by the voting of a portable schoolhouse to relieve the Golden Cove situation, instead of a one-room addition at an estimate of $16,000. The school committee prevented the invasion of the high school for anything but high school requirements by being voted the use of the lower town hall for grammar school purposes to offset the congestion at the Centre grammar school. The Westlands section was given the assurance of a new four-room building in the very near future and the need of a 12-room building at the centre to replace the present one which, according to opinion freely expressed, should have been condemned as unfit for use for many years past, was given consideration by the appointment of a committee for that purpose. Even the east and south villages were given due recognition by the voting of $2500 for the supplying of water for the schools in those two districts, and the north was voted $30 for the purchase of a new flag.

Although the recommendations of the school committee were not wholly accepted it was very evident that the majority of the citizens present appreciated the time and efforts which they had given to the consideration of the various propositions presented by them that evening.

The meeting appropriated $150 for the providing of five band concerts to be given one in each section of the town. It is expected that quiet will now prevail until such time as the needs of North Chelmsford were a building boom is being predicted, will make the needs of another grammar school and possibly a high school, absolutely essential.

HUGHES AT WELLESLEY

Speaks at Commencement
Exercises on "The Patriotism of Peace"

WELLESLEY, June 14.—Charles E. Hughes in an address at the Wellesley college commencement exercises today cautioned his hearers that in an appreciation of the difficulties which have accompanied the period after the war, we must avoid a distorted view and we must not fail to realize that the great heart of the nation has not changed in a few months. His subject was "The Patriotism of Peace."

He contrasted the unified efforts of wartime with "the absence of a compelling motive" and "the rush of competing interests" that have followed. Unless we have in peace time, he said, "that dominant sentiment which prompts a continuous and self-sacrificing devotion to public ends, the sacrifices of patriotism in war will have been in vain. Our national ideals are neither imperialistic nor radical. They transcend all ordinary national aims; they are not bound up in anything short of establishing and maintaining constitutional government as the sure base of liberty."

"It is a spurious patriotism that is linked to the triumph of any creed or class, or becomes the vehicle of bigotry. The common good rooted in the essential institutions of justice and individual liberty—that is the national ideal."

"We have talked so much of free institutions that we are apt to think of this country that they will take care of themselves. Our recent and current experiences should disabuse us of this notion. We have too many evidences of a readiness to take advantage of opportunity to establish autocratic administration. The ease with which abuses have arisen and have been congealed should give us no more anxiety than wild utterances which only defeat themselves. The tendency to crave arbitrary power, to use power—either economic or political power—thoughtlessly, is more apparent with us than devotion to the cause of liberty."

"It is the orderly processes of constitutional government that a government of law—with power so adjusted as to secure protection from capricious and arbitrary action—in the setting of principles and rules sanctioned by the people in the place of pranks, that we find the security of liberty. Whoever seeks to subvert these orderly processes is the enemy against whom at once the entire power of organized society should be directed."

"There is, however, a great difference between protecting the orderly processes of government and the attempt to repress political opinion with which we do not agree. It is precisely because liberty must have its institutions, because liberty can only continue through organizations securing government upon the basis of accepted principles, that the institutions of liberty are hopelessly defective and inadequate if they do not provide the means for the adaptations which each generation must have to guarantee its freedom."

"The true method is to trust the truth and find the remedy. Does a disease exist? If it does not, then now that it does not. If it is exaggerated, limit it to the facts. To the degree that it exists, search for the remedy. If a wrong remedy is proposed, expose it. If the remedy proposed is worse than the grievance, demonstrate it."

"The motto for democracy must be educate, educate, educate. You can find no other security than the intelligence and conscience of the people. But you cannot at once educate and stifle opinion. There is hope in the free air, there is tonic in confidence in ultimate success of what you strongly believe to be true but the policy of denying free expression of political opinions is death to the republic, for that expression is its vital force."

"The practice of putting large discretionary powers at the disposal of officers needs a curb. The patriot in peace demands government upon established principles and he should always be ready to contest officialism and bureaucracy, with its readiness to suppress individual freedom by capricious administrative action and to install in departments of a supposed free government what is nothing short of a reign of terror."

ESSAD PASHA MURDERED

Head of Albanian Delegation in Paris Shot to Death by Student

PARIS, June 14.—Essad Pasha, head of the Albanian delegation in Paris and former provisional president of Albania, was assassinated here yesterday. Three shots were fired at him by an Albanian student, two of which took effect.

Essad Pasha was emerging from the Hotel Continental in the rue Castiglione when he was suddenly confronted by a young man who later gave his name as Rustem Avenikavani, and said he was an Albanian student. Without uttering a word Rustem fired two shots which struck Essad Pasha in the chest, and another shot which went wild. Essad sank to the ground. He was picked up and taken to his bedroom, where he died shortly afterwards.

The assassin was arrested later. He told the police that he arrived in Paris on May 31 and declared that the crime was not premeditated. Recognizing Essad Pasha on the street, who he held to be responsible for the sufferings of Albania, he said he felt a sudden impulse and fired the shots. Rustem termed Essad "the Albanian dictator."

Essad Pasha had a picturesque career. Regarded by the European governments in 1913 merely as an Albanian outlaw, three years later he was recognized by these same powers as provisional president and minister of war of Albania, following the downfall of Prince William of Wied. Essad's selection as president of Albania was a reward for his services to the allies early in the war in the fighting against Austria.

Avlona Front Cleared

ROME, June 14.—Italian Alpine troops have cleared the Avlona front of Albanian insurgents by violent counter-attacks, according to the advices received today, which declare that the Italian troops were fired on from the rear by residents of Avlona. The Italians arrested and deported more than 1000 Muslim Albanians. In reprisal, an Albanian chieftain is reported to have shot a number of Italian prisoners.

Despatches received today state that on June 6 Albanian rebels began isolated attack in the region of Kanina, Gjiorni, Dugati and Tepelent to the south and southwest of Avlona. The Italian forces opposed desperate resistance giving way only before the superior strength of the enemy. The garrisons of Tepelent and Dukati capitulated but the other garrisons retreated.

News of the fall of Tepelent and Dukati caused sadness here today as 50 officers and 500 men of the garrisons were taken prisoner.

ROME, June 14.—"The situation in Albania is considered grave. The Albanian insurgents have been strengthened by American equipped Serbians wearing American uniforms," says the Ugen Nazionale, adding: "It is true the offensive by Serbian and Juvo-Slav troops aims to chase Italy from the Balkans."

CHANNING COX OUT TO SUCCEED COOLIDGE

CHICAGO, June 14.—Lieut.-Gov. Channing Cox informally announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for governor, succeeding Calvin Coolidge, just before the Massachusetts delegation special pulled out of the Illinois Central station at 11:15 yesterday morning. Formal announcement will be made on the arrival of the train in Boston this afternoon.

The special train also carried no less than three candidates for the nomination for lieutenant-governor, in Speaker Joseph E. Warner of Taunton, former State Treasurer Charles L. Burrill and Representative Charles D. Brown of Medford. Warner's statement of his candidacy will be issued by his secretary, Joseph E. Lincoln, when the train reaches Boston.

Representative Benjamin Loring Young of Weston, who had intended to retire from the legislature, will again be a candidate and hopes to succeed Speaker Warner.

Coolidge Not to Resign

BOSTON, June 14.—Gov. Coolidge denied last night the report that he would resign as governor on accepting the republican nomination for vice-president. He will serve out his present term, which expires the first Wednesday in January, as, if elected, vice-president, he does not assume that office until two months later.

The governor said he could see no reason for resigning, since in any event the constitution provides for the lieutenant-governor to serve as acting governor. In case the governor is absent from the state. As for a stumping tour, he said, that matter is entirely in the hands of the national committee.

RAPS MASS. DELEGATES

Mitchell Says Petty Politics in Ranks Beat Coolidge for First Place

BOSTON, June 14.—The Massachusetts delegation to the republican convention with its petty politics and sectional squabbling, its lack of energetic enthusiasm, its lack of cohesive co-operation, and, in a greater degree, its failure to act with unity, when unity would have brought home the bacon, booted an opportunity that comes only once in a century, and lost the presidential nomination to Calvin Coolidge and Massachusetts. Thus bitterly, Max Mitchell, head of the Cosmopolitan Trust company, denounced the convention yesterday, as he stepped off a train from Chicago. He was boiling with rage because Coolidge was not the chief republican standard bearer, declaring that, if ever a man had a chance to win the honor, that chance knocked at Coolidge's door, but was cold-shouldered by the delegation.

The convention as a whole was wild with curiosity about Coolidge, Mitchell asserted. Delegates from every section of the country went about inquiring about Coolidge, asking "who is Coolidge?" only to find that the Massachusetts delegation was split on its support of Coolidge. This lamed the Coolidge "dark horse" boom, and beat the Massachusetts governor for first place; this and nothing else, says Mitchell. Finding that the republicans representing the state at the convention were divided on Coolidge, the edge of extra Massachusetts interest in Coolidge, and curiosity about him, was blunted.

Mitchell was not a delegate to the convention. He went as a business man in the interest of a bit of financial legislation, which he wished incorporated into the republican platform. At Chicago, however, seeing the Coolidge boom running to seed through the neglect of the Massachusetts politicians, he jumped in and worked for Coolidge, and for Massachusetts in conjunction with numbers of other citizens of the state present, but not in an official capacity.

"The convention proved Calvin Coolidge the biggest republican in the country today," Mitchell said. "It went wild about the governor; wild, why his name drew about the only spontaneous

MRS. HENRI CHAPDELAINE

I was in such a weakened condition that I had no courage for anything, and the best part of my time was passed in resting, as I was always tired. This state of affairs was brought on by the fact that I had to start working at a very early age. My grandmother, who had used RED PILLS and had great confidence in them, made me take them for a while and they did me an immense amount of good. In fact, after taking them regularly I am now in the best of health, have a good complexion and am happy to be feeling so good.

aneous applause of the whole proceedings. He was acclaimed. Witness the way his name swept the convention when he was placed in nomination for the vice-presidency.

"The moment was ripe from the very first day to push the Coolidge candidacy over. The party bosses could not have stopped it so widespread was his popularity with the convention. All that had to be done at any moment was to present a united front for Coolidge, to show a little enthusiasm for him, and the Massachusetts delegation could have put him over."

"I wore a Coolidge button and I was stopped by scores of delegates on the streets. One and all they wanted to know about Coolidge. What he did, who he was. Towards the end it was felt that his record was much superior to Harding's, but previous sloppiness and indifferent work had nullified the opportunity. Work would have put Coolidge over."

"When the delegation gets back there will be fireworks. Part worked, part did not; those who worked were for Coolidge from the first. But there were not enough for them."

Mitchell refused to particularize as to who was to blame. He praised for

THE RIVER OF COMMERCE

Is the Stream That Flows Alongside the Highway of Life

BY W. B. COLVER
Chairman, Federal Trade Commission.
The oldest business in the world; the greatest business in the world; the universal business of the world, is the business of living.

Leading from the cradle to the grave is the broad highway of life. Each one of us must travel that road. There are no return tickets. The price of the one-way ticket, is the cost of living.

The whole purpose and end of all government and of all civilization, and of art and invention, is to keep unbroken the procession of human beings who travel the highway. As the grave receives a pilgrim, it is necessary that another must start from the cradle if the endless life-chain is not to be broken.

To the end that life may be made possible and pleasant, all the labor and ingenuity of mankind is exercised. It is in the general welfare that children may be decently born of sound bodies and brains; that they may be decently fed and their minds and bodies so developed that each can do his share of the world's work when his turn comes, pay his passage down the highway of life and provide somewhat for a comfortable old age.

Alongside the highway of life runs the broad river of commerce, upon whose mighty tide float countless craft freighted with the fuel and the food, the clothing and the materials for shelter, as well as the pleasures and luxuries which supply the daily needs of the pilgrims on the highway. It is the theory of our laws that this great river of commerce shall be kept forever clear of artificial obstructions and that the craft which navigate it, great or small, shall each enjoy the fullest possible freedom of movement.

MASS. DELEGATES PA- RADE TO STATE HOUSE

BOSTON, June 14.—The plans of Gov. Coolidge, republican vice presidential nominee, to go to Amherst for the opening of the commencement week of his alma mater and then to his home in Northampton, were changed yesterday upon receipt of a telegram from the Massachusetts delegates saying they would arrive here this afternoon and parade to the state house. The governor decided to remain in Boston to receive them, after which he will journey to his home.

Gov. Coolidge, as he was greeted by newspapermen yesterday morning, made a whimsical complaint of a statement published in a local paper that he paid $35 a month for his half house in Northampton, whereas he actually pays $32. He says that if the landlord should happen to see the story the rent might be raised to correspond and this, the governor declared, he did not want to happen.

During the day the governor was besieged with callers, who came to extend their congratulations on his nomination. His secretary, Henry F. Long, continually brought him telegrams. William H. Taft in his message said: "I congratulate you most heartily and sincerely on your nomination as vice president. The ticket of Harding and Coolidge will sweep the country and its certain victory means a useful and successful republican administration of the affairs of this country the next four years."

Gov. Clement of Vermont was the first governor to congratulate him, tel-

With Mrs. Coolidge he went for a short walk in the vicinity of their hotel in the forenoon and in the afternoon he took a three-mile hike.

He is not over enthusiastic over any particular sports and finds most of his recreation in walking. In the evening he and Mrs. Coolidge attended church.

Gov. Coolidge talked over the telephone yesterday to his two boys, John and Calvin, Jr., who are at Northampton.

After receiving the Massachusetts delegates this afternoon the governor will go to Springfield to join his Amherst classmates of 1895 at a dinner in celebration of the 25th anniversary of their graduation. On Tuesday he will present the diplomas to the graduating class of Holy Cross college at Worcester.

MEXICANS TREKKING BACK OVER BORDER

DALLAS, Tex., June 14.—Hundreds of Mexicans are trekking back to the land of the tamale and their nativity as a result of the latest revolution in the southern republic, according to railroad officials, who are watching the steady flow of swarthy-skinned persons toward the Rio Grande. Dallas' own "Little Mexico" which gained in population from a few score ten years ago to more than six thousand in the 1920 census is reported to be losing ground rapidly.

Since announcement of the death of Venustiano Carranza, 15 Mexicans, men, women and children purchased tickets here for the border. Since then, railroad men said, from 20 to 30 citizens of the nation to the south have been leaving daily. Similar conditions are said to exist at other southwestern cities.

Leading Mexican residents here declare confidence in the present revolution is responsible for so many natives returning home. Practically every native Mexican in Texas, they said, believes the new regime to be the foundation for a stable government in their revolution-torn country.

PREDICTS CROSS COUNTRY AIR MAIL

SAN ANTONIO, June 14.—Mail airplanes carrying 60,000 letters will be traveling between New York and San Francisco by next autumn, according to a prediction of Otto Praeger, second assistant postmaster general, who arrived here to spend a few days visiting friends.

He was accompanied by John A. Jordan, superintendent of construction of the air mail service of the postoffice department.

"We hope to inaugurate the transcontinental airplane mail service by Sept. 1 at the latest," Mr. Praeger said. "It is planned to supplant the mail car by the airplane and thus cut the time it takes a letter to cross the continent by more than one-half." Fifty specially constructed planes will be used in the transcontinental service, Mr. Praeger added, with four or five reserve planes for every one in service. No attempt, he said, will be made to fly at night.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Burton

TINGALING GETS A LETTER

While Tingaling, the fairy landlord, and Nancy and Nick, the twins (in their little Green Shoes) and the Magical Mushroom too, were on their way home from Wally Woodchuck's house, an idea occurred to the fairy and he stopped suddenly.

"CHIRK SAYS HE WON'T PAY ANY MORE RENT BECAUSE THE ROOF LEAKS," EXPLAINED TINGALING.

"Jumping crickets!" he exclaimed. "If this isn't rent day! It's the thirty-second of the month and I always collect my rents on that day. I'll have to get busy right away, and if you kiddies wish to go along, you're welcome. You might possibly run across your lost monkey if he's visiting here, you know."

Nick and his sister were delighted for many reasons. Never before had they had an opportunity to go inside the animals' houses in the Land-of-Deer-Knows-Where, looked extremely interesting. Having their Magical Shoes they could go anywhere they wished, even into Tioy Gnat's house Chipmunk yesterday," he said, putting rent because the roof leaks, and the stairs need fixing, and the walls are damp, and the door-bell won't ring, and the bathroom's out of order, and the pantry window's broken, and the wallpaper's coming off, and the doors are sprung, and the water pipe is busted (he said busted)."

"Outside of that I suppose it's all right," smiled the wise old Mushroom.

"Sure!" nodded Tingaling, jingling his bells emphatically. "We'll go right around and fix him. If he doesn't pay me, I'll tie bells all over him, and he'll hate that so, he'll pay me 10 cents!"

BRITISH ANNOUNCE PALESTINE POLICY

LONDON, June 14.—The general principles which will be followed by the new administration in Palestine were announced yesterday by Sir Herbert Samuel, high commissioner for Palestine. Sir Herbert said: "Complete religious liberty will be maintained in Palestine. Places sacred to the great religions will remain in control of the adherents of those religions. Civilian administration for the country will be established immediately. The higher ranks will consist of British officials of ability and experience. The other ranks will be open to the local population, irrespective of creed. Order will be firmly enforced. The economic development of the country will be actively promoted. In accordance with the decision of the allied and associated powers, measures will be adopted to reconstruct the Jewish national home in Palestine. The yearnings of the Jewish people for 2000 years of which the modern Zionist movement is the latest expression, will at last be realized."

Replies to "Arraignment of Postal Authorities" at Chicago Convention

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Postmaster General Burleson issued a statement yesterday declaring that in the light of the truth, the "arraignment of the postal authorities" by the republican party at Chicago, "falls harmless at their feet."

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Postmaster General Burleson issued a statement yesterday declaring that in the light of the truth, the "arraignment of the postal authorities" by the republican party at Chicago, "falls harmless at their feet."

Replying to the declaration in the platform that the present administration, destroyed the efficiency of the telephone and telegraph service when controlled by the government, Mr. Burleson quotes from statements of the American Telephone and Telegraph company: President Charles D. Taylor of the Western Union Telegraph Co. and others, that properties were successfully handled by the government and returned in good condition. Mr. Burleson says that the republican organization in a tentative draft of its platform adopted a "ministerial injunction" that during government control the wires were used for purposes of "political patronage and political espionage." He declares that of the four new places created for the wife administration, three were filled with republicans and challenges proof that there was "even an attempt at political espionage."

This charge is not made without a purpose, he declares, adding: "Watch the amount of a certain contribution to the republican campaign fund and it will be disclosed that a certain interest, which having failed to control or even influence a republican congress by slimy falsehoods, because both sides could be heard, temporarily got in its work on the great republican organization where the truth could not be heard and apparently was not desired."

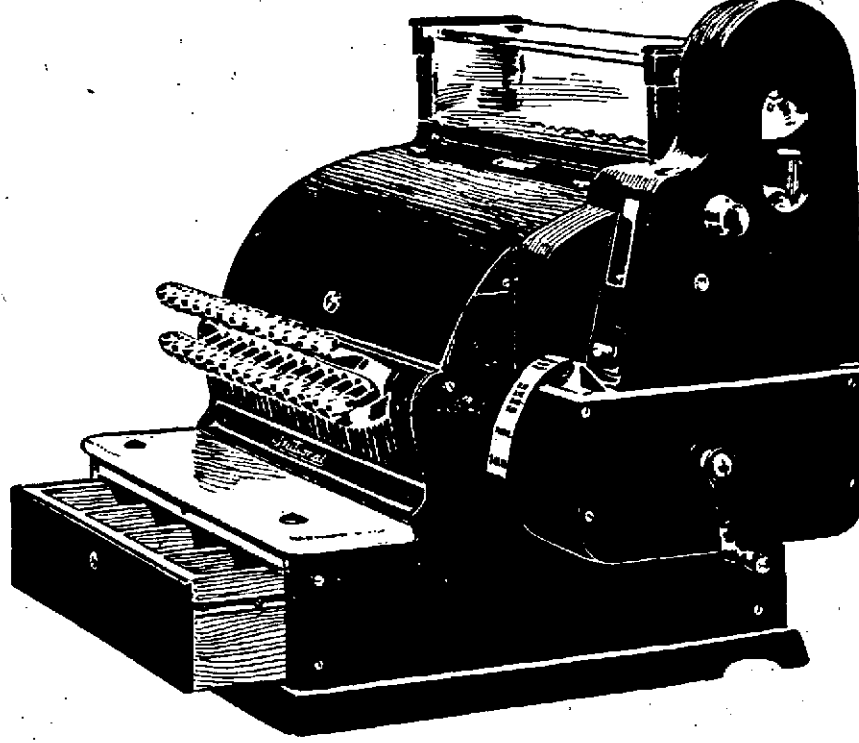

First platform plank made public at Chicago that the republicans refused postage rates. Mr. Burleson says the congress not only did not make much reduction but failed to take favorable action on his recommendation that the postage on drop or city letters be made 1 cent instead of 2, "after an acknowledgment that it should be done."

THE LOWELL SUN

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Proprietor
SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.
Member of the Associated Press

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

The old theory that more males are born than females during and after a war appears to be borne out by the reports from London that the birth returns show a tremendous excess of baby boys.

The Sun extends its congratulations to the members of the Lowell post of the American Legion who have succeeded in making their organization the largest of its kind in New England.

Tag days come one after another in Lowell and people learn how much easier and pleasanter it is to give than they would have thought possible before the new way of gathering funds for worthy purposes was invented.

The radicals at the Montreal convention of the American Federation of Labor who undertook to overthrow the leadership of Samuel Gompers showed courage considering that Mr. Gompers has been defeating similar movements for the last forty years.

There was one creditable performance in connection with the Chicago convention. Mayor Thompson of Chicago, socialist and "Red" sympathizer that he is and pro-German as he has been—resigned his seat rather than carry out instructions to vote for Lowden of big slush fund fame.

It is rather difficult to get very much excited these warm sunbiny summer days over the non-arrival of coal in Lowell in anything like the usual quantities, nevertheless, unless something is done to relieve the situation promptly there is good reason for anticipating that there will be some headless homes hereabouts next winter.

It is pleasant to learn that Mayor Thompson approves of The Sun's suggestion that more than $600 is needed for a proper municipal celebration of the Fourth of July in Lowell. It is understood that an additional $900 appropriation will be forthcoming and the people of the city will have some other indications than the date on their calendars that the nation's birthday is passing.

Hon. John F. Fitzgerald has been quoting the birth and death statistics of Boston to prove that the recent government count of the noses of that city is incorrect and the census bureau quotes the same figures to prove that the count was correct which proves that there may be some basis for Disraeli's famous remark, "There are lies, there are d— lies, and there are statistics."

Federal Reserve banks are criticized because they have adopted the policy of checking reckless speculation. This means that men will not be given credit to a dangerous extent beyond their ability to pay. In other words, the banks are not to underwrite the plungers who endeavor to handle very large transactions on small capital, depending upon the banks to come to their aid in case of pinch or necessity. This places a heavy responsibility upon the banks and one which they very wisely refuse to carry. They are restricting credit to reasonable limits, especially in case of speculators who try to get rich quick by turning over large transactions on the margin method.

STREETS FOR PLAY

The proposition to close certain streets or portions of streets to vehicular travel in order to afford security to children playing there is one that if wisely handled, may be productive of good to all concerned. In the first place it will allow some security to the children of congested districts who will remain on the streets anyhow during the greater part of the day. If sections of streets usually occupied by children at play were closed, there would certainly be fewer auto accidents. The sections to be closed should be such as the autos can get around without inconvenience. This would apply to Pleasant street from Pond to Andover, Chapel from Union to Charles, Charles from Central to Gorham and many other sections of streets similarly situated.

On some streets taken possession of by boys for the purpose of playing ball, the children practically refuse to move aside to let autos pass. If certain streets were designated as playgrounds, the children would gather there and fewer would be exposed to danger on the open streets.

The superintendent of parks and the commissioner of streets after a conference and survey of the streets in the congested districts, could decide what street sections could be closed without any great inconvenience to anybody and with benefit to the children.

THE WOMEN'S VOTE

Leaders of the national women's party say that they intend to oppose the republican nominee for the presidency and that they will trail him on all his speaking trips, picket his meetings and ask embarrassing questions at every opportunity. The leaders also say that they propose to conduct an active campaign against all republican candidates for the United States senate and house of representatives.

All this is to be done despite the fact that the republican platform contains a plank favorable to woman suffrage. The reason the women propose to fight against republican candidates is, that the leaders of the party have failed to bring to bear pressure on the republican governors of the states of Vermont and Connecticut to call their legislatures in special session to ratify the suffrage amendment.

The attitude of the women seems to be more or less justified. The legislatures of both states are known to be ready to ratify the amendment. They are prevented from doing so by the persistent refusal of the governors to permit the legislatures to act. Governor Holcomb of Connecticut is completely subservient to the wishes of the party leaders. In only lesser degree is Governor Clement known to be under their control.

No one can blame the women for feeling that they have been handed a "lemon" in the platform of a party whose leaders are not manifesting any very great amount of enthusiasm toward having the polls thrown open to them in November.

ALL DISSATISFIED

If all of the elements that are expressing dissatisfaction with the Chicago platform unite to defeat the ticket next fall the republican party will have a big fight on its hands.

The laboring men, through the American Federation of Labor at its annual convention, has condemned the platform makers for "turning their back on labor," and including a plank in the platform that it is claimed "constitutes a denial of labor's demands and contemplates the erection of government machinery for the coercion of labor and for the suppression and limitation of its proper, lawful and normal activities."

Former service men say they are out for the scalp of the party because of its failure to indorse a bonus for soldiers.

Business men are condemning the platform because if the policy that it enunciates in regard to the League of Nations is carried out it will mean the indefinite postponement of peace which is considered so desirable by the business world. The republican Boston Herald admits this in an editorial in which it says, "The business community wants peace and in the next five months this demand may gain some momentum."

The friends of Irish freedom are far from being in an acquiescent attitude toward the platform that passes over all mention of the cause in which they are interested.

Advocates of deflation are finding fault because, although there is a plank favoring deflation, it fails to make any specific mention of the way in which the party intends to bring deflation about.

There are other dissatisfied groups that might be mentioned, but the list as it is, is long enough to show that the republican party has a tough row to hoe from now until next November.

FLAG DAY

Today will be observed throughout the United States the anniversary of the adoption of the American flag in 1777, as now known except that a new star has been added for every new state admitted to the union since then. At above mentioned time and stand with boldly for the true principles of democracy and for the safeguarding of the rights, the interests and the freedom of all the people.

of the flag, however, than a thorough knowledge of what it represents, the union of states, one and indivisible with a constitution of principles providing for a republican form of government in which the sovereignty rests with the people, not in any one man or number of men, but in the citizens having the right to vote.

When the American citizen has examined the governments of the world with intelligence, he will find that no lives under the freest and best of all, under a flag which offers a refuge to the oppressed of other lands and endows them with the attributes of citizenship if they decide to withdraw their allegiance from foreign rulers and take the oath of allegiance to the United States.

The Stars and Stripes is the hallowed emblem that floated over Washington at the surrender of the British at Yorktown, October 19, 1781, making this republic free and independent forever; it was the flag that waved over the bloody fields of the Civil war and finally at Lee's surrender to General Grant at Appomattox on April 9, 1865; it was this flag also that inspired the United States soldiers in the heroic action that ended the world war at Chateau Thierry and the Argonne; and it was the same flag that floated proudly over the American warships which laid the mine barrage in close quarters, and finally drove them from the lanes of commerce.

To this flag must every true American give his undivided allegiance, his loyalty and devotion and stand ready, if need be, to defend it with his life.

"Forever float that standard sheet, Where breathes the foe but falls before us;

With Freedom's soil beneath our feet, And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us."

THE NOMINEES

In nominating Senator Harding for president and Governor Coolidge for vice president, the republican party has probably made the very best selection possible from the standpoint of expediency and practical politics.

Harding is not a towering national figure, it is true, but he is a man of clean record, free from the objection of representing the interests of or having attained the nomination by questionable means. True, he is rather conservative in his policies, but those who have watched his career testify that he is a man of ability and resource who, if elected, will unquestionably prove equal to the great responsibilities of the office. With his experience in the halls of legislation in his own state of Ohio as well as in Washington, he is quite familiar with the needs of this nation and should be able to give the country a progressive, safe and sane administration.

Undoubtedly the convention in centering upon Senator Harding had in mind the necessity of placing Ohio back in the republican column if the party is to win in November. In that light his nomination shows good strategy in planning against the possible selection of Governor Cox by the democrats.

The choice of Governor Coolidge for second place on the ticket will make a national appeal as coming from Massachusetts, the birthplace of American freedom and the home of two former presidents and four vice presidents. But the main thing that made Coolidge such a commanding figure was his firm and fearless stand for law and order when the police of Boston left the city unprotected and a prey to mob rule and lawless bands. The fact that the western states were the leaders in demanding his nomination, shows how popular he is outside his own state.

Harding and Coolidge have a united party behind them; they are both good patriotic Americans and taken for what they represent it will require a very strong democratic ticket and a thoroughly united party to beat them. Having spoken this candidly of the republican ticket we may add that if the democrats hope to name a winning ticket, they will have to exercise good judgment in their selection and they will also have to eliminate all ultra radical issues from their platform.

There is an opportunity for the democrats to win if they adopt the right kind of platform and select their candidates men who will rise above factional strife and stand with boldly for the true principles of democracy and for the safeguarding of the rights, the interests and the freedom of all the people.

SEEN AND HEARD

Has anybody seen any June roses yet?

Now for a deluge of graduation exercises!

Take care of the pennies and the war tax will take care of itself.

Things might be worse. Think of Noah's time, when water was high.

Now tell us how much the candidates for the vice presidency have spent.

Some statisticians should figure out how many tires could be inflated with the by-product of the Chicago convention.

Pretty hard to resist buying a tag with such attractive saleswomen on the job as those who were about town on Saturday.

Some people never take any interest in the structure of government until they want to know how many votes it takes to nominate a presidential candidate.

When the modern young man calls upon the modern young woman and offers her a pound of sugar instead of the antiquated box of candy, he may well say "sweets to the sweet."

When we hear them talking evolution we think of the visit we paid our old home in New Brunswick last summer and how we dodged automobiles in the roads where, as school-children, we "watched out" for bears.

Entirely Welcome

The man in the next flat was pounding on the wall. "Look here," he cried, "I can't sleep with your kid yelling like that! If you don't make him stop, I will!"

"Come in, sir—come in!" said the kid's father. "You'll be as welcome as the flowers in spring."—Edinburgh Scotsman.

Father's Revenge

Peter Thompson went to visit his son in Montreal. It was his first visit to the city and the young man showed him all the sights, concluding with an ascent of Mount Royal. In a burst of enthusiasm, Young Thompson said:

"See, father; isn't it wonderful down there?"

"Well," said his father, "it's so wonderful down there, what did you drag me up here for?"—Selected.

Might Have Been

"I might have married a millionaire," declared Everyman. "One of my old schoolmates is now one."

"And several of your schoolmates are working right at this time for $10 a week," retorted Everyman, "while one of them is in jail. I guess in marrying a chap getting $1500 a year your average is fairly good."

And then Everybody set up a howl and they had to stop quarrelling to attend to him.—Mass. Tech. Voo Doo.

A Surer Shot

A doctor took it into his head to go rabbit hunting and so he started out quite early on a beautiful morning, fully armed for the sport. About 4 o'clock in the afternoon he returned, tired out and empty handed, telling his wife he hadn't killed a thing; whereupon she remarked triumphantly:

"I told you so!" adding in the next breath, "If you had stayed at home and attended to your legitimate business you might have been more successful."—London Blinky.

Expensive Luxury

The social worker was doing his best to console with the inmates of the county jail.

"And you, my poor man," he queried, "How long are you confined for?"

"Six months and six days," replied the poor man, cheerfully.

"Why, that's a peculiar sentence. And what are the six days for?"

"Oh, I dunno," responded the convict with nonchalance. "War tax, I guess. Everything comes high these days."—American Legion Weekly.

Each Had a Wife

His flivver was out of gas. And it was out of gas on a country road seven miles from town, and the rain was falling in sheets.

Leaving his wife in the protection of the machine he dashed out into the middle of the road, holding high in the air an undersized umbrella that it might protect his new, neatly pressed spring suit, while he shouted at a motorist, whose headlight came dimly through the rain:

"Stop! I've got my wife!"

"So have I!" interrupted the motorist who had gas, and his car sped on without a let-up.

And then it did rain.—Kansas City Star.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

"How did the half vote come in the republican convention?" asks a correspondent. Some states sent double the number of delegates to which they were entitled and in such cases each delegate had half a vote.

Here are a few of the things that attracted the attention of the Man About Town during the past couple of days: A young man carrying his bank cheque book in his hip pocket while wearing his coat on his arm.

Victor Rochette running to his work at the Lowell pharmacy because he was a little late.

A man weighing about 200 pounds comfortably seated in a small car drawn by a 100-pound pony.

A badly torn American flag on a local bank building.

The janitor of the police station washing windows in the court room and referred to by a pedestrian as "second-story worker."

An official of the Five Cents savings bank giving his seat to a lady clerk of the bank in a one-man car.

A local business man with his nine children enjoying a ride in a Ford.

The Lowell chamber of commerce is extending its reputation for doing things beyond the immediate confines of this city, judging from the warm reception which the project of its playgrounds committee to convert highways into places where children may play has been received in Boston. City Clerk James Donovan who is acting mayor of the city in the absence of Mayor Peters heard of the Lowell plan and has given it his enthusiastic approval. He sees no reason why it cannot apply to Boston as well as Lowell. The idea of the local chamber is to rope off selected streets at certain hours so that vehicles cannot pass and thus allow children to play in congested districts without danger of accidents. Acting Mayor Donovan told Boston newspapersmen that Boston should have had such such play long ago but it remained for the Lowell chamber of commerce to agitate the scheme. Mr. Donovan will bring the matter to the attention of Mayor Peters upon the latter's return from Maine next Tuesday.

"SAVE THE BABIES"

TAG DAY RESULTS

The treasury of the Lowell Guild is richer by the sum of $1999.13, as a result of the collections made on "Save the Babies" tag day, Saturday. The officers of the guild are deeply gratified at the response that was made by the people of Lowell to the appeal for additional funds.

"Lowell made a splendid response to our appeal," said Mrs. Edward N. Burke, treasurer of tag day, "and we can now go ahead with our work of helping the babies more hopefully than ever before. We are especially pleased at the support given by persons who have been benefited either directly or indirectly by the work of the guild in the past. It is also a source of pleasure that so many who had little or no knowledge of the guild or its work became contributors."

Special credit is given by Mrs. Burke to the Crescent A.C. for help given the cause, at the boxing exhibition at Spaulding park, Saturday afternoon. The girl collectors at the park were assisted by George Donnelly and Frank Roane, who became active solicitors for funds at the ring-side. A stirring appeal for contributions was made by Mayor Thompson from the ring. The collection amounted to $164.30.

BIG CHIEF BACK FROM CONVENTION

After attending the annual convention of the International Association of Police Chiefs in Detroit, Michigan, during the past week, Supt. Redmond Welch, resumed his duties at the local police station this morning. The number present included chiefs from all over the country and Canada, and also a few from Scotland Yards, England.

Reports of all the committees of the convention were submitted and the convention went on record as favoring co-operation with the federal authorities in ridding the country of all radicals.

As a special feature during the week, the police department of Detroit gave a special demonstration in a parade headed by the police band of 45 pieces. Drill by the new recruits and an exhibition of horsemanship were shown at other times. In the election of officers, nearly all of the past officials were reappointed. President Quigley of Rochester, N. Y., presided.

BAPTIZED IN THE MERRIMACK RIVER

Six persons were baptized by immersion in the waters of the Merrimack river, at the new municipal bathhouse, yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Guy E. McQuade of the Hadley Street Baptist church.

Children's day exercises were held at the church in the morning, under the direction of the pastor, assisted by Misses Marjorie Emery and Bertha Baker.

LEGIONERS ATTACK DUAL CITIZENSHIP

HONOLULU, T. H., June 14.—The Hawaiian department of the American Legion has aimed a blow at dual citizenship among the Japanese of the islands by launching a campaign for the organization of a society of American Citizens of Japanese Ancestry, the keynote of whose pledge will be disavowal of Japanese dual citizenship laws. The proposed constitution provides that any American citizen of Japanese parentage over the age of 16-years may join the society after he has signed the pledge declaring his wholehearted allegiance to the United States.

Inexhaustible Power Developed By Submerged Windmill

P. A. Weisenborn, inventor, and a drawing showing his patented submerged "windmill," seen from above.

N. E. A. Staff Special

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, June 12.—Enough electricity to supply the entire civilized world can be generated by the Mississippi river, without the construction of a single dam or other obstruction.

This is the statement of George P. A. Weisenborn of this city, member of the national Institute of Inventors, and of the French Inventors' academy, who has just received, after years of labor, a patent on a submerged water wheel which has proven most successful in spite of all scientific theories to the contrary.

Until recently it has been accepted that no water wheel would function entirely submerged. But, working on the principle of the windmill which is entirely submerged in air, Weisenborn has invented a water wheel which will operate and continue to generate electricity as long as there is a slight movement or current in the water in which the wheel is placed.

With the new wheel, no dam to create a heavy fall will be necessary. Thus it can be used at the side of rivers, or in the ocean where the tides can play through it, and no obstruction to traffic occurs.

The wheel, which is said to have already been given a thorough test, generates electricity by utilizing the force of the current.

One of the wheels installed in a box 12 inches wide and 3 1/2 feet long, anchored in a stream flowing only half a mile an hour, is said to have generated sufficient electricity to operate a pump which drew up 34,000 gallons of water per day for an indefinite period.

Weisenborn, who is nationally known as a practical inventor, has 27 other inventions to his credit.

LOWELL PEOPLE HURT IN TWO KILLED BY FALL FROM SUBWAY TRAIN

NEW YORK, June 14.—Two men were killed and a third seriously injured yesterday when the door of a south-bound Lexington avenue express train slid open while the train was passing Astor place. Three men were standing on the rear platform of the first car. Two of them were thrown out and run over by the express, while the third, who had fallen partly through the door, was pulled back into the car by other passengers.

ARGENTINE SUGAR

To Be Landed at New York at 15 Cents a Pound

BUENOS AIRES, June 14.—Based on the domestic price at which Frederic J. Stimson, United States ambassador to Argentina obtained 14,000 tons sugar for the account of the United States, plus the transportation cost, it is estimated the sugar will be landed in New York at 15 cents a pound. It probably will require five ships to transport the sugar.

President Riggsby's action in waiving the exportation restrictions on the solicitation of Ambassador Stimson is considered here to have been decided upon as a special favor to the United States.

In addition to the sugar obtained for Mr. Stimson for the United States government, it is learned that private interests have contracted for a total of 50,000 tons for exportation to the United States.

POLISH ARMY

EVACUATES KIEV

WARSAW, June 14.—(By the Associated Press)—The Polish forces, carrying out orders to retreat to a line of defense in the Ukraine, have begun the evacuation of Kiev, having previously destroyed the bridges over the Dnieper, according to an official statement issued today. The real realignment is proceeding in perfect order, the statement said.

Fighting on the northern front has brought victory to the Poles, who have ousted bolsheviks from territory gained in the recent offensive. The Poles are consolidating their lines from the Dniepr southward along the Rostov.

Gen. Lomonsky, the Russian commander, who fought Denikine, is bringing up reinforcements. The despatches say, but the military authorities declare that the fight for Kiev is not yet ended by any means.

Orderly Retreat

WARSAW, June 14.—General Smigley's retreat before the Russian bolsheviks in Ukraine has been executed in perfect order, according to an official statement issued at army headquarters here.

The advance of the bolsheviks upon Czernobyl forced the retreat. In Poland the enemy has lost severely while trying to break the Polish front near Glibow. One thousand bolsheviks under cover of artillery fire reached the right bank of the Dnieper, but were cut off and annihilated. Two hundred were made prisoner and many were drowned. There is intense activity in the region of Lake Sego and to the northward.

MEMORIAL SERVICE BY CLAN GRANT

Many members of Clan Grant, 151, Lowell, left this city yesterday noon to attend a memorial service conducted under the auspices of the grand clan of Massachusetts. In the afternoon, in the First Congregational church of West Somerville, the return was made early in the evening. Grand Chief Bertram Glenness directed the service and the sermon was delivered by Rev. David Fraser, pastor of the church.

The following from this city were present: Chief Samuel Johnson, Alexander Ross, secretary; Naval Robinson, senior chairman; Harry Thompson, piper; James MacFarland, past chief and now senior chairman of the grand clan; Alexander Ray and Peter Caddell and Classmen John Kinsley, Thomas Kirk and Frank MacLean.

AFRAID LOAD TOO MUCH FOR CENTRAL BRIDGE

The Central bridge over the Merrimack river, stand the test of having 11 tons of steel carried across it at one time?

Such is the question confronting Commissioner John F. Salmon of the water department. One of the pieces of the new pump for the West Sixth street station of the department weighs in the neighborhood of 11 tons. Com. Salmon says, and there has been more or less comment recently as to the ability of the bridge to stand many heavy loads owing to its present condition. However, City Engineer Stephen Kearney believes that the pump section in question can be carried across in safety providing proper precautions are taken. He says that the bridge was originally built to stand a 15-ton load.

Republicans Are Satisfied

"Big three" was chosen, but with the widespread popularity of Gov. Coolidge it was felt in most quarters that the ticket will be a strong one.

Here are a few expressions of opinion on the result of the Chicago nominations as gathered at random from local Republicans:

Mayor Perry D. Thompson: "I think the republican party has chosen a strong ticket. Of course, we are all delighted with Governor Coolidge's nomination. I do not know Senator Harding so well but from what I do know, I think he will prove a strong man."

Commissioner George E. Marchand: "I am satisfied with the republican ticket as chosen at Chicago on Saturday. Naturally, it gave me great pleasure and a feeling of pride to learn that Governor Coolidge, with whom I sat in the state senate in 1915, had been chosen as the party's standard-bearer for the vice presidency."

Representative Henry Achen, Jr.: "How do I like the results? Fine! I believe the republicans have made a very excellent choice. I don't think they could have nominated a better man for the presidency from the candidates available and, of course, we should all feel flattered at the high honor that has come to our governor."

W. N. Goodell, president of the Lowell chamber of commerce: "I believe that if the Chicago convention had continued until today and 12 or 13 ballots had been taken, Governor Coolidge would have been the choice for president. It looked to me as though the tide were surely rolling his way. As it is, I believe that republicans generally will support the ticket, although a few of us may have wanted to see some other man chosen for the presidential nomination." Abel R. Campbell: "The Chicago nominations suit me all right. My only regret is that the results were not the other way round—Coolidge and Harding instead of Harding and Coolidge. I now look to see my good friend, Councillor James G. Harris, elected to the position of lieutenant-governor of the commonwealth."

Representative Victor F. Jewett: "The nomination of Senator Harding was very pleasing to me. Although he was not seriously considered before the convention, I believe he has the personal qualifications to make him a strong man to head the ticket. In addition, he is a strong campaigner. In my opinion, the republican convention did the best thing possible under the circumstances in agreeing on Senator Harding as a compromise candidate when it was found that none of the others could win. As for the selection of Governor Coolidge as the nominee for vice-president, I should say that the ticket was very fortunate in having a man like Calvin Coolidge. A perusal of press comment from all over the country indicates that he had much more potential and latent political strength than most people thought."

Albert J. Blazon, chairman of the board of assessors: "I believe the republicans have chosen a good ticket for the coming presidential election. Senator Harding is probably not so apt to inspire popular enthusiasm as some of the other candidates might, but I think the ticket as it now stands will receive fairly general support."

David Dickson, chairman of the republican city committee: "You may quote me as being very strongly in favor of the nominations made at Chicago Saturday night. I believe Senator Harding and Gov. Coolidge will form a strong ticket."

James O'Sullivan: "The republican convention is over and the republican nominees have been very definitely decided. I do not wish to comment further on the result."

The "show" will begin as soon as it becomes sufficiently dark to show the pictures, probably 8:45.

On Wednesday evening the same picture will be shown at the North common and on Thursday at the Alken street playground. It is planned to continue such exhibitions each week until September.

Flag Day is Observed Here

The exercises were confined to the individual classrooms and consisted of the reading of the governor's proclamation, the recitation of patriotic poems and the singing of patriotic hymns.

This evening a more formal touch will be given to the occasion when the Lowell lodge of Elks will stage its usual Flag day observance in its hall in Middle street and the Ladies' auxiliary of the Sons of Veterans will sponsor a general observance in Memorial hall.

The general public is invited to each of these affairs. The Elks' exercises will consist of the usual program of the order carried out year after year by Elks' lodges in all parts of the country. In Memorial hall the program will be a combination of the best efforts of representative patriotic organizations of the city. The speakers will include Mayor Perry D. Thompson, Rev. William H. Mahan, O.M.F., chaplain of the Lowell post of the American Legion, and Rev. Charles G. Zierk, assistant pastor of the First Congregational church. Exercises in both halls will start promptly at 8 o'clock.

Despite the fact that one of the chief purposes of Flag day is to bring forth a widespread exhibition of the national banner from homes and office buildings, there were few flags flying in Lowell today. With the exception of the accustomed banners on public buildings and other places where the Stars and Stripes is to be seen daily, there was scant recognition of the occasion on the part of individuals as far as public demonstrations of the patriotism were concerned.

The Flag day program at the Butler school today was as follows:

All interest in local scout circles is centring about the summer camp at Keyes pond in Westford, which is reached by taking the Ayer car and then taking a hike of a mile through beautiful country and woodland after reaching Nuttings bridge. The scout master will be in charge of the camp at all times and there will be a competent assistant director and also a tent leader for each group. ## LIFT OFF CORNS WITH FINGERS

Doesn't hurt a bit and costs only few cents

You'll laugh. Apply a few drops then lift some, touchy corns right off. No pain. Yes, magic!

A few cents buys a tiny bottle of the magic Frezzone at any drug store. Apply a few drops of Frezzone upon a tender, aching corn or a callus. Instantly that troublesome corn or callus stops hurting, then shortly you lift it out, root and all, without any pain, soreness or irritation. These little bottles of Frezzone contain just enough to rid the feet of every hard corn, soft corn, corn between the toes, corn calluses on toes.

So simple. Why wait! No humbug!

File Suit Against Dist. Atty.

NEW YORK, June 14.—Suit for $1,000,000 damages was filed in federal court here today, by attorneys for Gaston B. Means against District Attorney Edward Swann and Assistant District Attorney John T. Dooling. The complaint charges the defendants with conspiring with officials of the Northern Trust Co. of Chicago, "to bribe and corrupt witnesses" to testify falsely against the plaintiff in his trial for murder of Mrs. Maud A. Robinson King and to defeat probate of the alleged last will of James C. King of Chicago, her husband. The alleged bribery and corruption was said to have been practiced during the trial of Mrs. King at Concord, N. C. Means, who served as business agent for Mrs. King, was acquitted. The complaint charges attempts by Swann and Dooling to "convict plaintiff of the crime of murder, have him executed or incarcerated and failing in this design, as they did, to bring about an atmosphere through false and libellous publications furnished to the press by said defendants, as would have the effect of discrediting the plaintiff as a witness in the trial of the probate of the will in the city of Chicago. The ultimate object of said conspiracy to defeat the probate of the said last King will."

CHERRY & WEBB

SEA GIRT, N. J., June 14.—Governor Edward I. Edwards of New Jersey last night declared that the nomination at Chicago yesterday of Senator Harding as the republican presidential candidate, made democratic victory at the November election a certainty. The governor said that the nomination of Harding showed conclusively that the Old Guard was in the saddle and that the republicans do not want a man of progressive ideas and tendencies. "Therefore," he said, "it will be easy for a democrat of progressive type to be elected over Senator Harding."

The Elizabethan era gave vogue to the button and buttonhole.

CHICAGO, June 14.—Eamon De Valera, president of the Irish republic, accompanied by Liam Mellows and Sean Nunan, Sinn Fein member of parliament, left here Saturday night for Washington, preparatory to going to San Francisco, where De Valera is confident he will be able to get the democratic national convention to incorporate the plank calling for recognition of the Irish republic, which the republicans refused to adopt. Regardless of the developments in San Francisco, De Valera, who has been in the United States just a year, is expected to shortly make his departure for France or Spain, taking with him control of funds estimated at $15,000,000, the proceeds of the recent "bond" sales in the United States. Notionally, the control is divided between him and two other trustees, the three being independent of the official Irish movement in this country, and free to expend it as they may in Europe or elsewhere.

REPUBLICAN NOMINEES

Republican Nominee for Vice President

Returns From the Convention

party made their way through the cheering crowd at the station, pausing just long enough for two flashlight photographs to be taken, an incident that was repeated upon his arrival at his home.
Senator Harding told the Associated Press, he would remain in Washington about a week. He will not receive formal notification of his nomination until he returns to his home at Marion, Ohio.
Congratulations upon his nomination continued to reach Senator Harding at his office, while at his home, Mrs. Harding received numerous enthusiastic messages from their personal friends. Many of the neighbors had remained up to witness the homecoming and their greeting was like that given by the crowd at the station.
The senator thanked those who had gathered to welcome them, but made nothing in the nature of a statement. Among those who accompanied the senator from Chicago were Senators Lodge of Massachusetts, republican leader, and Fernald of Maine.

is publisher of the Marion, Ohio, Star. He was born on a farm, near the village of Blooming Grove, Morrow county, Ohio, Nov. 2, 1856, the eldest of eight children. His father, George T. Harding, was a country doctor whose forebears came from Scotland. Before going to Ohio, the Hardings were residents of Pennsylvania, where some of them were massacred by Indians. Others fought in the revolutionary war. The mother of Warren, Mrs. Phoebe Dickinson, was descended from an old-time Holland Dutch family, the Van Kirsks.
In his youth Warren Harding lived the life of a farmer boy attending the village school until 14 years of age, when he entered Ohio Central college of Iberia, from which he was graduated. As editor of the college paper he first displayed a talent for journalism. He was obliged to stop school now and then and earn the money with which to pursue his college course. At one time he cut corn, at another painted barns and at still another drove a team and helped to grade the roadbed of a new railway. At 17, he taught a district school and played a horn in the village brass band.
At odd times he worked in the village printing office, in time becoming an expert typesetter and later a linotype operator. He is a practical pressman and a job printer, and a "make-up man" is said to have few equals. The lucky piece he has carried as a senator is the old printer's rule, half for 60 to 75 per cent. taxes on war profits.

In 1884 Dr. Harding moved his family to Marion. A short time afterward the father purchased for Warren Harding The Star, then a small paper.
On the paper Warren Harding performed every function from devil to managing editor. In all the years the senator has owned it there has never been a strike or a threatened one.
Senator Harding is closely identified with many other large business enterprises in Marion and other parts of the state. He is director of a bank and several large manufacturing plants and is a trustee of the Trinity Baptist church.
Mr. Harding has twice represented the 13th senatorial district of Ohio in the state legislature and served one term as lieutenant governor. At the 1914 election Harding was elected United States senator by a majority of more than 100,000, running 73,000 ahead of central bodies throughout the country. He is a member of the committee on foreign relations. Senator Harding married Miss Florence Kling in 1891.

692 VOTES GAVE
HARDING VICTORY
CHICAGO, June 14.—Warren G. Harding, United States senator from Ohio was nominated for the presidency Saturday evening by the republican national convention after a deadlock for nine ballots and which forced out of the running all the original favorites.
As his running mate, the convention named Gov. Calvin Coolidge of Massachusetts, upsetting a plan of combination by the Harding backers to nominate for the place Senator Irvine L. Lenroot of Wisconsin.
The collapse of the forces of Gov. Frank O. Lowden and their transfer in large part to Senator Harding put the Ohio candidate over.
Gen. Wood lost heavily, however, when the Harding drift began, and Senator Johnson, the third of the trio of leaders on the early balloting Friday, also went steadily down hill.
Entering the convention as a candidate distinctly of the "dark horse" class, Senator Harding got only 64 votes on the first ballot Friday, and on the second he dropped to 56. When the convention adjourned Friday night, at the end of the fourth ballot, he had 61.
The final checking up on the tenth and final ballot showed 692 for Harding with only 12 left supporting Lowden, 157 for Wood and 59 for Johnson. At their best, earlier in the day, the Wood people had mustered 312 votes and the Lowden forces 311. Johnson's high point was 145 recorded on the second ballot on Friday.

HARDING'S RECORD IN CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, June 11.—One reason why the American Federation of Labor is so strongly opposed to Senator Warren G. Harding, republican nominee for president, aside from the straddle on labor evolved by the republican platform-makers in Chicago, is found in the fact that he voted for the Esch-Cummings railroad bill with the original anti-strike clause.
Senator Harding also voted to limit federal control of railroads to 6 or 12 months after the end of the war, while organized labor as a rule favored its continuance for a much longer period.
The republican nominee also enjoys the reputation of being one of the republican senators who voted to pass the Volstead prohibition enforcement act over the veto of President Wilson.
Other important votes by Harding include the following:
For woman suffrage.
Against fusionism of woman suffrage amendments to state constitutions instead of legislation.
In favor of the prohibition constitutional amendment.
Against prohibition in the District of Columbia and for a nation to submit the question to a referendum of the citizens of Washington.
Opposed the motion of Senator Phelan of California to lift the wartime ban on beer sales and bars.
Voted against motion to make honey-dry law apply to the district of Columbia.
Voted for the immigration bill.
Voted against several amendments

include primary elections of senators and representatives.
Opposed the resolution to tax campaign contributions 100 per cent. when they exceeded $500.
Voted for the passage over the president's veto of the bill repealing daylight saving.
Supported the resolution providing for the withdrawal of American troops from Russia.
Cast his vote to sustain the ruling of the chair that wartime prohibition was out of order in the agricultural appropriation bill.

COOLIDGE AT DESK TO "FINISH HIS JOB"

BOSTON, June 14.—Governor Coolidge, the republican nominee for vice president, returned to his desk at the state house today, to "finish his job." This was the word which came from the executive chamber in reply to the question whether he would resign in order to devote himself entirely to the republican national campaign in the interests of Senator Harding and himself.
The governor will offer his services to the republican managers to assist in the campaign, but according to his secretary, Henry F. Loner, his activity will be conditional on his ability to do full justice to the demands of his present office. He has finished every job he has ever undertaken and intends to complete his record as governor without slighting the job in hand in order to try for another, the secretary said.

Important Matters Before Him

Governor Coolidge has before him several important state matters, including a special session of the legislature, next fall, to recodify the statutes of the commonwealth and supervision of the reorganization of nearly all state departments.
To one of the friends who congratulated him on his nomination for the vice presidency, the governor remarked: "I don't know about that, the governorship of Massachusetts has always been considered the second most important office in the United States."
Congratulations Pour In
To the many telegrams of congratulation received yesterday, scores were added today. Harry Daugherty, manager of Senator Harding's campaign, sent a message of satisfaction that Governor Coolidge was to be the senator's running mate. Senator Lenroot of Wisconsin, opponent of Governor Coolidge for the vice presidential nomination, sent his congratulations, and Charles E. Hughes also sent word applauding the convention's choice.
The Massachusetts delegates from Chicago are to parade to the state house this afternoon to honor the governor.
A machine has been invented which can dig up 30,000 trees a day.

GLAD JOHNSON WAS ELIMINATED

PARIS, June 14.—Few newspapers in this city venture to comment on the action of the republican national convention at Chicago although they all devote considerable space to the nomination of Warren G. Harding for president and Calvin Coolidge for vice president.
"It is a triumph of the machine of the party organization, or its bosses, over personalities sufficiently powerful or well supplied with funds to be in a position to appeal directly to the nation," declares Perlinax, political editor of the Echo de Paris.
In examining the platform of the republican party, Perlinax pays special attention to the possible recodification of the Panama controversy and the Canadian wood pulp question. This posture relative to England and Canada, he finds, to a certain extent symptomatic, but he adds: "We need not fear that such an attitude will degenerate into abstention from European affairs or hostility toward Europe. Too many elements of the republican party are bound up in our affairs and our preoccupations. The silence observed regarding Ireland shows the desire felt at Chicago to keep on good terms with England."
"Mr. Harding is a champion of the international political point of view which raised the American senate against the Versailles treaty," says the Journal. "But all Frenchmen are greatly satisfied with the elimination of Glad Johnson, whose heart and spirit have never been greatly in favor of France.

The newspaper comments on the fact that Mr. Harding is an intimate friend of Myron T. Herrick, former United States ambassador to France, and a real friend of this country.

SITUATION AT AVLONA SAFE

ROME, June 13.—Government officials consider the situation at Avlona safe, a brigade of Italian soldiers originally destined for Turkey, having been landed there. It is confirmed that in addition to 12 dead and 46 wounded, prisoners numbering 800 soldiers and 40 officers have been lost by the Italians in recent fighting at Avlona. They were, for the most part, isolated contingents which were surrounded and compelled to surrender because of lack of food and ammunition.

ATTEMPT TO KILL GEN. ALESSANDRI OF CHILI

SANTIAGO, Chili, June 13.—An attempt to assassinate Arturo Alessandri, presidential candidate of the liberal alliance, occurred this morning. Three shots were fired at him, but he was uninjured.
Senator Alessandri was speaking from the balcony of his house when the shots were fired, but his son rushed at his assailant, disturbing the would-be assassin's aim so that the last two bullets flew wild.

THE AMERICAN MIDDLE WEST SUPPLIES BEAUTY AND GRACE TO BALLET SOON TO DANCE IN EUROPE

CHICAGO, Ill., June 14.—Charm of the great middle west of America will have a chance to enthrall the beauty centres of Europe when the Pavley-Oukralinsky ballet crosses the Atlantic. In this ballet are many beautiful girls from the middle west, who came to Chicago to study dancing under Pavley and Oukralinsky. Bright lights among these are the graceful toe dancer, Helen Grenelle; Maxine Arnold, who distinguishes herself in a dance of the bacchantes; and Stasia Ledova, dainty ballet dancer. Maxine Arnold's sister, Ysobel, is also a member of the ballet, in company with Viola Sher-

KEYSA M'MEIN ON G.O.P. MILLINERY STYLES

CHICAGO, June 14.—Neysa McMein, famous creator of magazine covers, who is here doing sketches of prominent republican women for The Sun, is acting like a new-room whiz-bang sketch artist instead of an idol of the New York studios. First "big" G.O.P. woman leader she met told her "woman's hat was in politics."

So Neysa very promptly took a long, long slant at hats being worn in and about Michigan Avenue hotels where political women work or promenade. Her conception of the latest in feminine head decorations are shown above. Aren't they lollypops?

SAYS AMERICAN LOYALTY ARISES IN HEART

WASHINGTON, June 14.—President Wilson yesterday sent the following letter to Col. John McElroy, commander of the department of the Potomac, Grand Army of the Republic: "I wish with all my heart that I could be present at the loyalty demonstration which is being planned for the evening of June 16. I am certainly present in spirit, though circumstances prevent my being present in body. "Fortunately for us Americans, loyalty is not so much a compulsion of duty as a compulsion of the heart. In being loyal we are being true to ourselves, to the principles in which we are nurtured and bred and which we have long recognized as a true expression of our national character and purpose, and I believe that as the years go by and the policy of the country develops along consistent lines, loyalty will grow warmer and warmer until it consumes everything that is base or hostile."

TRYING TO CAPTURE AMERICAN FAMILIES

N.E.A. Staff Special WINNIPEG, Canada, June 14.—A drive to capture 50,000 families in the United States, transport them here and make Canadian citizens of them is to start at once. Backed by the governments of three prairie provinces and 50 powerful financiers, the Western Canada Colonization association, largest company of its kind ever formed in the Dominion, will spend $1,500,000 to bring 50,000 five-person families from the United States and 70,000 from Europe to settle 20,000 acres of idle land lying between parallel railway lines.

Hand-Raising Keasy Because it is estimated each settler is worth $218.33 to the railways alone each year, there has been no trouble in raising a quarter million dollars of the fund already in the subscriptions of from $5000 to $25,000.

Before the end of the summer the settlers will be pouring into the region. The company has no land to sell and thereby differs from most colonization companies. This land is privately owned by scores of individuals, most of whom are non-residents.

er colonization organizations, including those of the railways and the government. It is estimated that in addition to those settlers brought by the new company, through regular channels, 75,000 United States farmers and their families will come here.

To Aid Settlers The association not only will bring settlers here but will strive to make them feel at home, according to M. A. Brown, mayor of Medicine Hat, one of the backers of the plan.

"It will care for settlers as soon as they arrive," Mayor Brown says, "advise them and stand by them in their pioneer days. Also we will encourage inter-provincial settlement. That is, we will help Canadians in the far west and the east who wish to change their land to find suitable land here. We want to keep every Canadian in Canada."

CRANE AND WEEKS INJURED AT CHICAGO

CHICAGO, June 14.—Just before the departure of the Massachusetts delegates, former Senators Crane and Weeks were in an automobile collision that for a few seconds looked as if it might be serious. The two leaders had proceeded in their automobile but a few yards down Michigan avenue from the Congress hotel when a large truck, going at a fairly high speed, crashed into the Weeks-Crane machine. The windshield was smashed and the two men were badly shaken up, but neither was seriously injured.

PRES. WILSON TO RIDE A BICYCLE

WESTFIELD, June 14.—President Wilson apparently intends to do some bicycle riding this summer, as the Westfield Manufacturing company, the world's largest bicycle manufacturers, has received an order for one of the lightest and finest models of their product to be shipped directly to the White House. Dr. Grayson signed the order and urged immediate delivery.

At Nos. 90-92 Dummer street is a two-tenement house and store property; the store with two rooms and toilet, gas and city water, on first floor; six rooms on second floor, and three attics on the floor above, rented to one tenant who pays $20 per month or $240 per year. At No. 4, in the rear is the other tenement of five rooms, toilet, city water, etc., rented at $6 per month or $72 per year, making a total rent for the building of $26 a month or $312 per year.

At Nos. 6-8 in the rear of No. 92 Dummer street is a block of four tenements, two tenements of three rooms and two tenements of four rooms, toilet, city water, etc., one tenement rented at $6 per month, or $72 per year; the other tenements with a little outlay could be made to rent for an equal amount which would show an income for this building of $21 per month or $252 per year.

At Nos. 102 and 104 Dummer street is a three-story structure, containing 12 tenements, six tenements of five rooms, and six tenements of four rooms, toilet, city water, etc. Tenements are rented, eight tenements at $2.25 per week each, and four tenements at $2 per week each, making a total income for the building of $26 per week or $1352 per year.

The lot has sewer, gas and water connections, and is of good dimensions; has a splendid area of about 2249 square feet, with a magnificent frontage on Dummer street of about 254 feet, and an average depth of approximately 93 feet, thereby enabling the erection, if one so desired, of a modern mercantile building, and with its location in the very center of industry, within 350 feet of City Hall, it can rightly be termed a downtown business location. With the completion of the Cardinal O'Connell Parkway, it gives to this property an unobstructed view of, and entrance from Merrimack street.

The premises, at present, have an actual income of $1352 per year, and with the expenditure of a reasonable amount on the unoccupied portions, can be made to return a much greater revenue.

This sale is of unusual importance, being a downtown property with many advantages for future development, owing to its character and lot area, and should especially attract real estate investors, and operators, as the opportunity is seldom, if ever, offered to purchase at open competition a property of this magnitude, and especially in this particular era.

TERMS.—$2500 must be paid to the auctioneer, just as soon as the property is struck off. Other terms made known at sale.

By order of PERCY PARKER.

Labor Draft Would Help in the Reunion of Working People, He Says

MONTREAL, June 14.—It is "pitiable" that the United States has not ratified the League of Nations, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, declared here today, in an address before the federation convention. If the league covenant were submitted to the American people, "without any other entangling questions, it would be overwhelmingly accepted," he said.

"It is pitiable that the United States has not ratified the League of Nations," said Mr. Gompers, "but has forgotten the effort of the nations of the world to prevent another horrible conflict such as that which started six years ago."

The labor draft of the league covenant, he added, would "help workers in the most backward countries."

Mr. Gompers made a strong appeal to the convention to support the league and "lend a helping hand to the toilers of the smaller countries, and aid them to take their places among the civilized nations of the world."

"It is a question of this character brought into a campaign with declarations of all the political parties and all the problems of an internal character, and with the personality of candidates, the whole question of the League of Nations may be submerged," said Mr. Gompers.

"It is regrettable that the question in itself has not had an opportunity to receive the consideration and determination of the people themselves. In any event, we are as we are. We are making the best progress possible and give our aid to any movement that will help to bring about that day of which

Local G. O. P. Members Take Kindly to Nomination of Senator Harding

Claim Nomination of Coolidge as Vice-President Was Very Good Move

The nomination of Senator Warren G. Harding of Ohio as the republican candidate for the presidency of the United States at Chicago on Saturday meets with fairly general approval among Lowell republicans, although there was a strong Wood sentiment evident here before the convention.

In a series of thumbnail interviews with representative republicans this morning a representative of The Sun found that the nomination of Governor Calvin Coolidge of this state for the vice presidency has served to wipe away whatever disappointment might have been felt at the failure of one of the "big three" of the republican convention—Wood, Johnson and Lowden—to land first place. It was generally agreed that Harding will not be a candidate to sweep either the party or the country with enthusiasm such as might have been the case if one of the

REPORT PLOT FOR BIG UPRISING IN INDIA

LONDON, June 14.—Alarming confidential reports of an intended uprising in India in the autumn are reaching the government, according to the Star today, which says that Bolshevik literature is known to be behind the movement. The India office, when questioned with regard to the Star reports declared it had received no such information. The Star, however, makes the flat assertion and displays the news sensationally.

"It is considered by the authorities at home," the Star says, "to be more than probable that organization in Turkestan of a red force to attack Persia and Afghanistan is but part of a big plot by which it is hoped to end our power in India. The opinion is expressed that should the whole Bolshevik plot mature, our present forces in India would be insufficient to cope with the rising."

STRIKERS RETURN AT NEW BEDFORD

NEW BEDFORD, June 14.—Loomfixers who had been on strike since the first week in April, returned to their looms at seven of the cloth mills here today, the corporations which have effected amicable arrangements with the men being the Pierce Manufacturing Co., Pierce Bros., Ltd., Grinnell, Potomac, Whitman, Bristol and Nield. It is estimated that 300 operatives returned, leaving approximately 250 men who are still out on strike at 11 mills. The remainder of the operatives having secured employment at other trades, it was stated at loomfixers' headquarters.

CASE AGAINST CITY OF LOWELL

Property Owners Seek Further Remuneration for Land Lost in Seizure

Plot of 392,866 Square Feet Was Taken for City Water Works Need

The last week of the present session of the civil division of the superior court began this morning, with an unusually large number of spectators, witnesses and lawyers in attendance.

The case on trial was that of Apostolos A. Johnson and George E. Voezlas against the city of Lowell, for recovery of additional remuneration for land on Pawtucket boulevard, taken by the city for water works purposes. Judge Fosdick was on the bench.

The plaintiff's declaration asserted that the municipal council had voted to take the land by right of eminent domain May 27, 1919, and that $3550 was awarded in payment. The plot of land contains 392,866 square feet.

John J. Hogan, in opening for the plaintiffs, said that the land taken by the city had been purchased by his clients in 1907, with the intention of establishing thereon a Greek colony. He said that the land adjoined Ferry road, over which people from New Hampshire travelled 150 years ago to a ferry across the Merrimack river. The principal building on the property was described as having been used as a tavern in the old days.

Melvin B. Smith, civil engineer, was the first witness for the plaintiffs. Questioned by John J. Hogan, the witness told of surveying the plot of land in 1903 and staking out streets thereon at that time. He said that the last time he had visited the property, a few months ago, all evidence that the streets had been laid out had apparently disappeared.

William C. Purcell, register of deeds of Middlesex county, read from the records a description of the boundaries of the land taken by the city.

Albert T. Ryan, a Lowell real estate dealer, told of having bought and sold land in the vicinity of the plot taken by the city. He said he had been familiar with the plot since 1907. He said he had seen streets cut through it. He said the air in the vicinity was free from dirt and smoke and that it was readily accessible to the city. He considered it one of the best residential sites in the Merrimack valley.

The witness said he estimated the value of the land taken as being

Boston Man and His Wife Died of Poisoning, Say Physicians

Analysis of Contents of Bottle of Liquid Found in Room Ordered

NEW YORK, June 14.—George A. Hamilton and his wife, Irene, died today, victims of wood alcohol poisoning, in the opinion of physicians who attended them. Medical Examiner Leary ordered an analysis of the contents of a bottle of colorless liquid found in the room in a South End lodging house.

The man told the landlady early today that his wife was seriously ill and that he was feeling badly. Physicians who were called found Mrs. Hamilton dead and sent her husband to a hospital where he died soon afterward.

CARUSO ESCAPES INJURY IN BOMB EXPLOSION

EASTHAMPTON, N. Y., June 14.—Mrs. Enrico Caruso admitted today in a cable to her husband, that she is beginning to feel the strain of the melodramatic incidents which recently have been crowded into her life.

First, the $500,000 jewel robbery at her villa here; then veiled threats of kidnapping her daughter; third, explosion of a bomb yesterday in the National theatre in Havana, where her husband was giving a farewell performance, these have served to draw even tighter the taut nerves of the tenor's wife.

Recent theft of high proof whiskey, rare wines and brandies from the Caruso cellar also were reported today.

Not until this morning did Mrs. Caruso learn of the explosion, which injured many persons but left the singer unharmed. Motoring to the telephone station, Mrs. Caruso paced nervously up and down, waiting for the office to open. Then she found awaiting her this message:

"Dearest, You have no doubt read of bomb in newspapers. I was in dressing room and unharmed. Don't worry. Caruso."

Much relieved, Mrs. Caruso sent her husband this reply: "Thank God you are safe, my Ric. Never so worried in my life. Feel years older. All well. Praying for your return. All love, my darling. Embraces. Doro."

SEEK WOMAN IN MURDER MYSTERY

NEW YORK, June 14.—Search for a mysterious couple believed by the police to be able to give valuable information in connection with the murder here last Friday morning of Joseph B. Elwell, wealthy sportsman and whist expert, was begun today.

Besides this man and woman, detectives are searching for two sporting men intimates of Elwell, who disappeared the morning of the killing. Police theories regarding motives for the crime today swung from jealousy to revenge arising from a dispute over heavy betting. Meanwhile search for the "woman in the case" continued, with 25 detectives seeking clues from the picture gallery of beauties which graced Elwell's home.

G. O. P. NOMINEE BACK AT DESK

Harding Cheered Upon Return to Capital—To Be Formally Notified at Marion

Mass. Delegates in Parade to State House in Honor of Coolidge

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Senator Warren G. Harding of Ohio, republican presidential nominee, was back at his desk in his office at the capitol today. Accompanied by Mrs. Harding, his secretary, George Chastain, and a small group of senators, he arrived here a few minutes after midnight and went directly to his home on Wyoming avenue. While a Boy Scout band of Oil City, Pa., sounded a noisy welcome, the senator and his

HARDING PLEASED TO RUN WITH COOLIDGE

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Senator Warren G. Harding, the republican presidential nominee, who arrived here last night from Chicago, put in a busy day today, receiving the congratulations of friends and clearing up pending matters in connection with his senatorial duties. He found time, however, to play a round of golf at a neighboring country club.

The republican nominee announced that for the present he would have no statement to make. He reached his office shortly before noon, and, after posing for the motion picture men, was given an informal reception by senate employees. He seemed in the height of good humor.

At his office, the senator found several hundred telegrams of congratulation as well as a large batch of mail. Among the telegrams were messages from his father, Dr. George Harding, and sister, Abigail, sending "congratulations and love," and from former President Taft, Charles E. Hughes, Senator Hiram Johnson, Governor Coolidge, the senator's running mate, Senator Knox and a number of others.

Message From Sousa
Senator Harding was especially pleased with a telegram from John Philip Sousa, which said:

"Bless your musical soul. May God's harmonies be with you forever."

Other messages received were from Senator Penrose, democrat, of Ohio, and Representative and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth of Ohio.

No engagements were made today for Senator Harding, who desired to rest as much as possible after his strenuous work at Chicago. The senator said he had no definite plans, but that he probably would leave Washington the last part of the week. He plans to confer before Monday with Chairman Will H. Hays of the republican national committee, and other republican leaders, and then will take a rest before going to his home at Marion, Ohio, about July 1.

When Senator Harding reached his office today, he found there a large American flag and vases of flowers, gifts from Miss Cora Nellie Mattern and Mrs. Grace Lamond, members of his office force, and George Christian, his secretary.

On arriving at the capitol, the senator visited the senate barber shop to see Elder Sims, one of the negro barbers.

"He's the barber who prays for me," Senator Harding said. "It did me good to see him."

Senator Harding declared that he is a presidential candidate was "more strenuous than anything I have ever known."

Harding Thanks Coolidge
Senator Harding sent replies today to a number of the telegrams of congratulation. This message went to Governor Coolidge:

"Thank you for your message. Your selection for the vice presidency has strengthened our ticket by adding a truly great and trusted American. I am honored by the association."

LONDON, June 14.—Warren G. Harding's personality and record being virtually unknown here, newspaper comment this morning expresses neither satisfaction nor disappointment with the republican choice of a presidential candidate. Two or three journals assume the result of the Chicago convention has opened the possibility of the election of a democrat to the presidency, which of late has been regarded here as extremely improbable.

Among those taking this view are the London Times and the Daily News, the latter telling the democrats

CANADIAN COMMENT ON HARDING'S NOMINATION

MONTREAL, June 14.—Canadian papers today devoted considerable space to comment on the nomination of Senator Warren G. Harding for president of the United States, and in general favored his candidacy.

"Mr. Harding has a good reputation, is not an extremist, has shown business enterprise, and is thought to have qualities that will commend him to the voters," said the Montreal Gazette. "His associate is Mr. Coolidge, who won fame in connection with the Boston police strike, and is not well regarded by organized labor, which was also offended by the labor plank in the platform."

The Toronto Mail and Empire (conservative) said:

"Senator Harding has been chosen for no other reason than that those responsible for his choice believe he will win, because the party will unite behind him. Under Harding, the people of the United States may expect the sort of government they received under McKinley, and which they have not received since."

The Toronto Globe (liberal) recognizes Harding as a "second choice," and says:

"Public sentiment was echoed in the cheers for Hoover from the gallery, but the 'old guard' is always proof against popular impulses. Hoover is not of the professional type of politician and the 'old guard' prefers a man who is 'safe' from his own point of view. Harding has no black marks on his public record, and he illustrates in his own career as a self-made man, the qualities which appeal to the bulk of his countrymen."

The Toronto Star comments on the large sums of money spent on behalf of men defeated, and says: "Yet Harding is, perhaps, as sound a candidate as could have been chosen."

The Manitoba Free Press says: "Senator Harding's candidacy is not likely to make much appeal to the restless and unattached voters in the United States and the democrats who have the tactical advantage of the fast word in making platforms and picking a candidate, may find in McAdoo or another, a candidate that may appeal to these elements."

AFTERMATH OF CONVENTION

Talk of Third Party With Sen. La Follette at Head of Ticket

Harding's Manager Urges National Committee to Take Prompt and Snappy Action

CHICAGO, June 14.—Declaration by Amos Pinchot, member of the committee of 48, that there positively would be a new party presidential candidate in the field; rumors that Senator La Follette would head a ticket as presidential candidate, and announcement that the campaign in behalf of Senator Warren G. Harding, the republican presidential nominee, would be started promptly, were the outstanding developments following the republican convention.

The statement by Mr. Pinchot declared that the "republican party has driven out of representation in its councils the millions of voters who followed Roosevelt, Johnson and La Follette, and that the new party will represent these voters and 'present a definite and constructive program.'"

Reports concerning Senator La Follette's possible candidacy were less clearly defined and in some instances were linked with declarations made in behalf of the committee of 48. Harry M. Daugherty, pre-convention campaign manager for Senator Harding, began preparations for the presidential nominee's campaign by requesting the national committee to take "prompt, snappy and energetic action in placing the merits of the republican issues before the voters of the country. Party managers, it was said, would start the campaign soon after the democratic convention is held and would not wait until Senator Harding and Governor Coolidge are officially notified of their nomination."

O'HARE TO LEAD 1921 HIGH SCHOOL TEAM

George "Red" O'Hare, outfielder, today was elected captain of the 1921 high school baseball team at a meeting of the letter men immediately after the school session. O'Hare has played two years on the team in the left field position. He is a sure judge of a fly ball, covers a lot of ground and is a flash on the bases. His hitting, while not heavy, is timely as a rule and in the lead-off position is a dangerous man for an opposing pitcher to face. In addition to his baseball proclivities, O'Hare is a fast short distance runner and was quarterback on the 1919 football eleven.

CIRCUSES COMBINED IN GIGANTIC SHOW

Not since the beginning of tented amusements has there been any event so important to the circus patron as the announcement that the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey circuses have been combined into one mammoth show.

For years the acknowledged giants of the sawdust world, these two institutions now comprise the biggest and most remarkable traveling organization that has yet toured America. For more than two decades the shows, as separate concerns, presented the world's foremost artistic artists, the two greatest menageries in existence, and all else that comprised the cream of the circus world. Now the famous showmen have selected the very best of both shows and centralized it in a great, new circus known as the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Show combined. This super-circus opened its season at the Madison Square garden in New York city. It played there for many weeks. A million persons saw its many wonders. There, as elsewhere, it has been proclaimed the most gigantic undertaking in the history of amusements. When the aggregation exhibits here, those who visit it will see even more than New York's million saw. For, large as is Madison Square garden, it could not accommodate all the circus. It requires the specially constructed tents used on tour to do that.

Some idea of the immensity of the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Combined may be had when it is stated that there is one trained elephant act that comprises a "quarter of a million pounds of elephants." The giant Theopians finish their number in ensemble with a line of ponderous forms that extend along the length of one entire side of the hippodrome track. That suggests the bigness of the main tent program. As for the menagerie it is filled with marvels. In place of two or three giraffes such as heretofore been offered, the visitor will find eight of these ungated rarities ranging from "youngsters" to giraffes measuring more than 20 feet in height.

The circus horses—outnumbering all previous records as to totals—have been selected with the greatest care. The street parade is the best and longest ever presented. The men and women stars are the foremost in dancing. There are scores of dumb actors. No such number of clowns were ever before carried by any circus. For those who love the pomp and grandeur of pageantry there will be the great introductory display. This gorgeous review opens the main tent program at all performances. It is presented with a bigness and wealth of display in keeping with the rest of this—"the most colossal circus ever organized." Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Combined will exhibit here Friday, June 25.

Before using jars or cans for canning fruit it is necessary to sterilize them.

Wash the cans in hot soap suds. Rinse in hot water. Let cans cool, then fill with cold water. Put in a kettle on a rack and surround with cold water. Heat slowly to the boiling point and boil ten minutes. Remove from water, empty, and if possible, fill while hot. Let the covers stand in boiling water ten minutes.

Aside from sterilizing the jars this boiling process toughens the glass. But in these days of "safety first" it's a good plan to put the jars on a cloth wrung out of hot water while filling them with boiling fruit and syrup.

Menu for Tomorrow

Breakfast—Oranges, broiled bacon, graham gems, coffee.

Luncheon—Strawberry fritters, spinach salad, toasted muffins, tea.

Dinner—Asparagus soup, broiled fish, baked potatoes, string beans, shredded cabbage, lemon custard pie, coffee.

My Own Recipes

When choosing a fish for broiling pick out one that is not too thick. Herring broil nicely and are almost the only small fish that bone well. Sear quickly, but reduce the heat and cook slowly. Too much heat draws out the juices and dries the fish.

STRAWBERRY FRITTERS

1½ cups of flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
2 tablespoons powdered sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
2-3 cup water
1 egg
2 cups strawberries

Separate yolks and whites of eggs. Beat yolks till thick and lemon colored. Sift flour, baking powder, sugar and salt together. Add alternately with water to yolks. Add berries. Beat whites till stiff and dry and fold into dough. Drop from the spoon into hot deep fat. Drain on brown paper and serve with maple syrup.

LEMON CUSTARD PIE

2 eggs
1 tablespoon butter
1 cup sugar
1 lemon (juice and grated rind)
1 tablespoon flour
¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup milk

Separate whites and yolks of eggs. Beat yolks. Add dry ingredients. Add butter. Add lemon juice and grated rind. Mix well. Add milk. Beat whites of eggs till stiff and dry and fold into mixture. Pour into a pie dish lined with pastry (not baked) and bake in a moderate oven till firm to the touch.

NEW ELECTRIC ORGAN

Improvements that include the installation of a new electric organ are under consideration at the Paige Street Baptist church. The trustees of the church have given the necessary authority for the purchase of the new instrument and a financial campaign already is under way. The choir loft also will be greatly enlarged and other alterations made on the interior.

CENTRALVILLE M. E. CHURCH

The annual Children's day concert by the members of the Sunday school of the Centralville M. E. church was held last evening in the vestry of the church with a large attendance. The affair was in charge of A. L. Hiser, superintendent of the school, and under his direction pleasing numbers were given. At the close of the concert stereopticon slides showing Sunday schools in Japan, China, Korea and the Philippines as well as Greenland's icy mountains, were thrown on the screen.

NOT even a woman knows how much a woman owes to her lovely hair. Many a battle of hearts has been won or lost by just that kind of loveliness—or the lack of it. Scrawny hair, an oily head and a scaly scalp have caused more unhappiness than the world will ever know.

MOST men don't know it, but they begin to get bald at the age of sixteen and they usually finish before forty. Any Medical Specialist on Hair can look at a Dandruff-covered head and tell just about when the first white spot will appear. Dandruff means—NO HAIR.

Important Medical Announcement

WE are now ready to offer a guaranteed public test of our discovery of a Preparation that will completely arrest the progress of Seborrheic (or Dandruff) germ that is destroying the hair of half the civilized world; a Preparation which, at the same time, will act like a food for the hair in producing a new and most remarkably luxuriant growth.

This statement is made over the signature of the President of F. A. Thompson & Company, one of the largest and oldest Pharmaceutical Houses in America, a house which for many years has manufactured medicines for your physicians and druggists. We are in no sense a so-called "Hair Tonic" concern, this discovery having been made in the regular course of Laboratory work with this announcement coming at the end of a four years' test on many thousands of cases.

The Great Hair "Scourge"

Practically the only direct destroyer of hair is a germ or micro-organism that attacks the Sebaceous Glands. These glands lie under the skin, near the root of the hair.

When the glands are attacked by this germ, they pour their oily contents up through the scalp in an effort to get rid of their deadly enemy. In doing this, they destroy themselves and finally the hair itself.

This oily content crystalizes on the scalp and is what is known as "dandruff". To the medical profession, the disease which causes Dandruff is known as Seborrhea.

The Dangers of Dandruff

The great danger of dandruff is that it is so easy to get rid of without getting rid of the cause. Dandruff is only a fat and almost any solution will wash it off. Meanwhile these germs that cause it, go on multiplying by millions beneath the scalp.

Our Remarkable Discovery

Oddly enough we were searching for a "Food for the Hair" that would so nourish these glands as to overcome the destroying action of the dandruff germ, just as a strong person throws off disease.

But, almost by chance we discovered that this very "Food for Hair" we had developed purely for its nourishing effect, had within itself, a sufficiently strong "bactericidal", or germ-destroying property, to arrest the development of the germ itself.

No Alcohol

Our final problem was to keep these properties in solution without alcohol. For alcohol will dry the hair, make it brittle and turn it grey. This last problem was finally solved and our work was done.

Four Years' Test

Our tests have now covered four years and the results have been such as to amaze even us who have been more than conservative.

We have found the Remedy that will destroy the germ that destroys the hair—a Remedy which, at the same time, will feed the hair and give it a beautiful gloss and luxuriance.

We could not afford to jeopardize our standing with the medical profession by making such statements unless they were absolutely true.

We have sought to give this Preparation a trade-name easy to remember and have called it

FAMO

No More Thin, Sick Hair or Baldheads

It doesn't seem possible, but it is really true that this scourge to the hair of all civilized peoples can be destroyed at last. There is no longer any need for scaly heads and sickly hair. And, except in cases where baldness is inherited, or where there is a skin disease, there is no longer any need for another head becoming bald.

When you see your hair taking on richness and luxuriance waveness and life, when you can feel the health returning to it in a natural way, when you can watch these changes from day to day as the germ is destroyed and the hair nourished, you will realize what a remarkable discovery FAMO is.

There are a quarter of a million bottles of FAMO for this National Public Test, but of course, that means only a limited supply for each city. So read the guarantee in the next column and get your bottle now.

Fully Guaranteed

We guarantee the return of your money if you do not see results yourself satisfactory to yourself. You are to be the jury and the judge.

We guarantee that FAMO will give to your hair a new luxuriance, health, vigor and growth which you will be able to see for yourself.

We guarantee that the progress of the Seborrheic germ will be entirely arrested and that not only will the Dandruff disappear but that the cause of it will also be removed. The itching and falling hair will stop and your scalp will clear up entirely in a matter of days.

LEAGUE COUNCIL TO HEAR PERSIA'S APPEAL

LONDON, June 14.—Persia's appeal for protection against Russian bolshevik aggression, was expected to be one of the first subjects discussed by the council of the League of Nations at the opening of its executive session in St. James' palace late this afternoon. The sessions will continue for two days, with the probability that the bare outlines of the conclusions reached will be announced on Wednesday.

In view of the hands-off policy of the council with regard to the Polish offensive, some observers of the trend of affairs feel that the Persian situation raises a problem almost impossible for the council as now constituted, to solve.

MASS. DELEGATES START FOR WEST

The advance guard of Massachusetts delegates to the democratic national convention is on its way to San Francisco. It left Boston yesterday in a special car that is routed to travel via Montreal, across Canada to Vancouver, and thence leisurely down the Pacific coast to the convention city. This trip is to cost the delegates about $100 more than the trip by the regular route which has been selected by the committee on transportation. The party making the trip by the latter route is to start next Sunday.

In the party that left yesterday were Daniel H. Coakley, delegate from the 13th district; District Attorney Joseph C. Pelletier, delegate at large; Francis J. Finerman, president of the democratic club of Massachusetts; Mayor Edward Quinn and Edward Cushman of Cambridge, delegates from the 8th district; Francis Costello, 11th district delegate; Patrick Bowen, 12th district delegate; Daniel J. Bradley of Somerville, 9th district delegate; John T. Kennedy, 11th district alternate; and a number of party leaders including United States District Attorney Daniel J. Gallagher. Senator David I. Walsh was not a member of the party. He has two commencement addresses to deliver during the week and later will go to Washington from which place he will start on the trip to San Francisco.

THE SYMBOL

(Copyright, 1920, N.E.A.)
What is it but a seraph of fate,
That symbol which we call the star.
A ball of cotton, over-full,
A worm's cocoon, a sheep's lost wool?

A seraph of fate? But in its seams
Are stitched men's memories and dreams:
And dream and trumpet, lyre and harp
Are woven in its wool and warp;
And pregnant hopes and deep desires,
Loud of our sons as of our sires,
How shall you tear its threads apart,
Whose shuttle is a people's heart?

What is it but a dash of dye
Which we have streaked across the sky,
Making obedience, proud but prone,
As heathen to their gods of stone?

A dash of dye? But so appears
The color of our faith and fears,
Our toil and turmoil toward the light,
Our wounds of wrong in quest of right,
And when our wounds are turned to sears

We symbolize them into stars!
So not the symbol makes demands,
But that for which the symbol stands.

What is it but a gasp of gush
To which we bow the while we blush,
A song, a phrase, a sibyl's breath,
To lure men even unto death?

So be it, then, and rest content,
For what is life but sentiment?
We live, we love and through the years
Our smiles are salted of our tears,
Strength dies, Love weeps, but turns to guard

To guard a laughing child at play,
And, playing, spies the flag above
Ahead to symbol life—and love.

Senator Walsh is of the opinion that the convention will be a long one, and that there will have to be a gradual sifting out of candidates before a final choice is made.

As far as can be ascertained a majority of the Massachusetts delegation is divided in its support between McAdoo and Palmer with the sentiment in favor of the former possibly slightly predominating. There is some sentiment for Edwards and Governor Cox of Ohio is becoming more popular.

The consensus of opinion among the delegates, however, so far as it can be ascertained appears to be that the delegates will go into the convention with open minds ready to vote for the candidate that circumstances and developments shall seem to show is likely to have the best chance of winning at the polls.

The rumor is being circulated that National Committee Coughlan of Fall River may yet decide to become a candidate for reelection, and if such should prove to be the case, there appears to be little doubt but that he can have the place without serious opposition.

KNOCKED OVERBOARD

E. B. Taber, Wearing Rubber Boots and Oilskins Picked up Near Point of Collapse

NEW BEDFORD, June 14.—E. B. Taber of Montauk, L. I., numbered among the victims of the sea when his cabin cruiser motor boat Del Rey was picked up as a derelict drifting in the open sea 45 miles southeast of No Man's Land, Friday and brought to this port Saturday, arrived in New Bedford today to claim his boat. Mr. Taber is an agent in the employ of the conservation commission of the state of New York, maintaining hatcheries at Montauk. Last Friday he was engaged in setting lobster pots and was knocked overboard by a heave of the sea and precipitated into the water fully dressed, wearing rubber boots and oilskins.

After being in the sea 45 minutes and almost on the point of collapse owing to his cumbersome clothing, Taber was picked up by Edward B. Tuttle, engaged in the same business. He was landed at Port Pond bay, L. I., and today came to New Bedford to claim the Del Rey, which was towed here Saturday by Capt. William B. MacDonald, master of the steamer Jophiel of Gloucester.

Although the day as it will be remembered, had been warm throughout, there were moments when the temperature took a sudden jump when the exchange of "hot shots" were going over the top.

Taken all in all, it was a successful meeting as far as results are concerned. The finance committee won some of their points by the voting of a portable schoolhouse to relieve the Golden Cove situation, instead of a one-room addition at an estimate of $16,000. The school committee prevented the invasion of the high school for anything but high school requirements by being voted the use of the lower town hall for grammar school purposes to offset the congestion at the Centre grammar school. The Westlands section was given the assurance of a new four-room building in the very near future and the need of a 12-room building at the centre to replace the present one which, according to opinion freely expressed, should have been condemned as unfit for use for many years past, was given consideration by the appointment of a committee for that purpose. Even the east and south villages were given due recognition by the voting of $2500 for the supplying of water for the schools in those two districts, and the north was voted $50 for the purchase of a new flag.

Although the recommendations of the school committee were not wholly accepted it was very evident that the majority of the citizens present appreciated the time and efforts which they had given to the consideration of the various propositions presented by them that evening.

The meeting appropriated $150 for the providing of five band concerts to be given one in each section of the town. It is expected that quiet will now prevail until such time as the needs of North Chelmsford were a building boom is being predicted, will make the needs of another grammar school and possibly a high school, absolutely essential.

WAGE INCREASES FOR WOMEN
(Special to The Sun)
STATE HOUSE, Boston, June 14.—Wage increases may be expected in the near future in several industries where women predominate among the workers, as a result of legislation passed during the recent session of the general court.

The industries in which early action may be expected include retail stores, brush manufacturing, laundries, women's clothing manufacturing, men's furnishing manufacturing, women's light wear manufacturing, retail millinery, and office and building cleaners.

In each of these industries, a minimum wage is now in effect, through decrees entered by the minimum wage commission, upon recommendation of a wage board. Heretofore, however, revision of such decrees could be obtained only upon petition of five employers or of 40 employees, and as a matter of fact there has been but one revision since the commission was established in 1913.

Employers, naturally, do not ask for a revision on a rising labor market. If they desire to increase wages, they may do so without bothering with the minimum wage requirement. Employees, it is claimed, have hesitated to seek revisions, in fear that such activities might lead to their discharge.

The new law, however, permits the minimum wage division to re-convene a wage board, without waiting for a petition, whenever in its judgment conditions warrant a change in the existing minimum. Now that a formal petition is no longer necessary, it is expected that employees will be willing to bring informally to the attention of the division many requests which they have been unwilling to make formally over their own signatures, and it is considered probable that there will be immediate requests for upward revisions in at least three, and possibly more, of the industries mentioned above.

The Times referring to a statement by its Chicago correspondent that the British must be prepared for a thorough readjustment of their relations with the United States and his prediction that the process will not be easy, says: "That depends, in great measure, upon ourselves. If we show a straight, clear and honest policy in world affairs, affirmatively based upon these principles which are common to us and Americans, we may have tireless disputes to reach an arrangement, but there can be no doubt as to the result."

The Express believes that "friendly relations with Great Britain will undoubtedly be part of Mr. Harding's policy."

ECHOES OF CHELMSFORD TOWN MEETING

North Chelmsford was, of course, largely represented at the special town meeting held at the Centre last Friday evening. For importance, interest and excitement, the meeting lacked nothing in these respects.

The prologue of the entire affair had its origin at the special hearings which were held at both the Centre and the North during the same week. The meeting was called for the purpose of interesting the parents and citizens in the present and future school requirements by means of a survey which had been prepared by the members of the school committee, who took this opportunity to offer various suggestions in connection therewith.

It might not have been the hottest, but it was certainly the lengthiest special town meeting held for many years past.

Although the day as it will be remembered, had been warm throughout, there were moments when the temperature took a sudden jump when the exchange of "hot shots" were going over the top.

HUGHES AT WELLESLEY

Speaks at Commencement
Exercises on "The Patriotism of Peace"

WELLESLEY, June 14.—Charles E. Hughes in an address at the Wellesley college commencement exercises today cautioned his hearers that in an appreciation of the difficulties which have accompanied the period after the war, we must avoid a distorted view and we must not fail to realize that the great heart of the nation has not changed in a few months. His subject was "The Patriotism of Peace."

He contrasted the unified efforts of wartime with "the absence of a compelling motive" and "the rush of competing interests" that have followed. "Unless we have in peace time," he said, "that dominant sentiment which prompts a continuous and self-sacrificing devotion to public ends, the sacrifices of patriotism in war will have been in vain. Our national ideals are neither imperialistic nor radical. They transcend all ordinary national aims; they are not bound up in anything short of establishing and maintaining constitutional government as the sure base of liberty."

"It is a spurious patriotism that is linked to the triumph of any creed or class, or becomes the vehicle of bigotry. The common good rooted in the essential institutions of justice and individual liberty—that is the national ideal."

"We have talked so much of free institutions that we are apt to think in this country that they will take care of themselves. Our recent and current experiences should disabuse us of this notion. We have too many evidences of a readiness to take advantage of opportunity to establish autocratic administration. The ease with which abuses have arisen and have been condoned should give us no more anxiety than wild utterances which easily defeat themselves. The tendency to crave arbitrary power, to use power—either economic or political power—ruthlessly, is more apparent with us than devotion to the cause of liberty."

"It is the orderly processes of constitutional government that a government of law—with power so adjusted as to secure protection from capricious and arbitrary action—in the putting of principles and rules sanctioned by the people in the place of tyranny, that we find the security of liberty. Whoever seeks to subvert these orderly processes is the enemy against whom at once the entire power of organized society should be directed."

"There is, however, a great difference between protecting the orderly processes of government and the attempt to repress political opinion with which we do not agree. It is precisely because liberty must have its institutions, because liberty can only continue through organizations securing government upon the basis of accepted principles, that the institutions of liberty are hopelessly defective and inadequate if they do not provide the means for the adaptations which each generation must have to guarantee its freedom."

"The true method is to trust the truth and find the remedy. Does a grievance exist? If it does not, then show that it does not. If it is exaggerated, limit it to the facts. To the degree that it exists, search for the remedy. If a wrong remedy is proposed, expose it. If the remedy proposed is worse than the grievance, demonstrate it."

posed is worse than the grievance, demonstrate it."

"The motto for democracy must be educate, educate, educate. You can find no other security than the intelligence and conscience of the people. But you cannot at once educate and stifle opinion. There is hope in the free air, there is tonic in confidence in ultimate success of what you strongly believe to be true but the policy of denying free expression of political opinions is death to the republic, for that expression is its vital force."

"The practice of putting large discretionary powers at the disposal of officers needs a curb. The patriot in peace demands government upon established principles and he should always be ready to contest officialism and bureaucracy, with its readiness to suppress individual freedom by capricious administrative action and to install in departments of a supposed free government what is nothing short of a reign of terror."

ESSAD PASHA MURDERED

Head of Albanian Delegation
in Paris Shot to Death by Student

PARIS, June 14.—Essad Pasha, head of the Albanian delegation in Paris and former provisional president of Albania, was assassinated here yesterday. Three shots were fired at him by an Albanian student, two of which took effect.

Essad Pasha was emerging from the Hotel Continental in the rue Castiglione when he was suddenly confronted by a young man who later gave his name as Rustem Aventikavent, and said he was an Albanian student. Without uttering a word Rustem fired two shots which struck Essad Pasha in the chest, and another shot which went wild. Essad sank to the ground. He was picked up and taken to his bedroom, where he died shortly afterwards.

The assassin was arrested later. He told the police that he arrived in Paris on May 31 and declared that the crime was not premeditated. Recognizing Essad Pasha on the street, who he held to be responsible for the sufferings of Albania, he said he felt a sudden impulse and fired the shots. Rustem termed Essad "the Albanian dictator."

Essad Pasha had a picturesque career. Regarded by the European governments in 1913 merely as an Albanian outlaw, three years later he was recognized by these same powers as provisional president and minister of war of Albania, following the downfall of Prince William of Wied. Essad's selection as president of Albania was a reward for his services to the allies early in the war in the fighting against Austria.

Arlona Front Cleared

ROME, June 14.—Italian Alpine troops have cleared the Arlona front of Albanian insurgents by violent counter-attacks, according to the advices received today, which declare that the Italian troops were fired on from the rear by residents of Arlona. The Italians arrested and deported more than 1000 Mussulmen Albanians. In reprisal, an Albanian chieftain is reported to have shot a number of Italian prisoners.

Despatches received today state that on June 6 Albanian rebels began isolated attack in the region of Kanina, Glorj, Dugati and Tepelent to the south and southwest of Arlona. The Italian forces opposed desperate resistance giving way only before the superior strength of the enemy. The garrisons of Tepelent and Dukali capitulated but the other garrisons retreated.

News of the fall of Tepelent and Dukali caused sadness here today as 70 officers and 500 men of the garrisons were taken prisoner.

ROME, June 14.—The situation in Albania is considered grave. The Albanian insurgents have been strengthened by American equipped Serbians wearing American uniforms," says the Idea Nazionale, adding: "It is true the Offensive by Serbian and Juvo-Slav troops aims to chase Italy from the Balkans."

CHANNING COX OUT TO SUCCEED COOLIDGE

CHICAGO, June 14.—Lieut.-Gov. Channing Cox informally announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for governor, succeeding Calvin Coolidge, just before the Massachusetts delegation special pulled out of the Illinois Central station at 11:15 yesterday morning. Formal announcement will be made on the arrival of the train in Boston this afternoon.

The special train also carried no less than three candidates for the nomination for lieutenant-governor, in Speaker Joseph E. Warner of Taunton, former State Treasurer Charles H. Burrill and Representative Charles D. Brown of Medford. Warner's statement of his candidacy will be issued by his secretary, Joseph E. Lincoln, when the train reaches Boston. Representative Benjamin Loring Young of Weston, who had intended to retire from the legislature, will again be a candidate and hopes to succeed Speaker Warner.

Coolidge Not to Resign

BOSTON, June 14.—Gov. Coolidge denied last night the report that he would resign as governor on accepting the republican nomination for vice-president. He will serve out his present term, which expires the first Wednesday in January, as if elected vice-president, he does not assume that office until two months later.

The governor said he could see no reason for resigning, since in any event the constitution provides for the lieutenant-governor to serve as acting governor, in case the governor is absent from the state. As for a stumping tour, he said, that matter is entirely in the hands of the national committee.

MASS. DELEGATES

Mitchell Says Petty Politics in Ranks Beat Coolidge for First Place

BOSTON, June 14.—The Massachusetts delegation to the republican convention with its petty politics and sectional squabbling, its lack of energetic enthusiasm, its lack of cohesive co-operation, and, in a greater degree, its failure to act with unity, when unity would have brought home the bacon, boosted an opportunity that comes only once in a century, and lost the presidential nomination to Calvin Coolidge and Massachusetts.

Thus bitterly, Max Mitchell, head of the Cosmopolitan Trust company, denounced the convention yesterday, as he stepped off a train from Chicago. He was boiling with rage because Coolidge was not the chief republican standard bearer, declaring that if ever a man had a chance to win the honor, that chance knocked at Coolidge's door, but was cold-shouldered by the delegation.

The convention as a whole was wild with curiosity about Coolidge, Mitchell asserted. Delegates from every section of the country went about inquiring about Coolidge, asking "who is Coolidge?" only to find that the Massachusetts delegation was split on its support of Coolidge. This lamed the Coolidge "dark horse" boom, and beat the Massachusetts governor for first place; this and nothing else, says Mitchell. Finding that the republicans representing the state at the convention were divided on Coolidge, the edge of extra Massachusetts interest in Coolidge, and curiosity about him, was blunted.

Mitchell was not a delegate to the convention. He went as a business man in the interest of a bit of financial legislation, which he wished incorporated into the republican platform. At Chicago, however, seeing the Coolidge boom running to seed through the neglect of the Massachusetts politicians, he jumped in and worked for Coolidge, and for Massachusetts in conjunction with numbers of other citizens of the state present, but not in an official capacity.

"The convention proved Calvin Coolidge the biggest republican in the country today," Mitchell said. "It went wild about the governor; wild, why his name drew about the only spontaneous applause of the whole proceedings. He was acclaimed. Witness the way his name swept the convention when he was placed in nomination for the vice-presidency."

"The moment was ripe from the very first day to push the Coolidge candidacy over. The party bosses could not have stopped it so widespread was his popularity with the convention. All that had to be done at any moment was to present a united front for Coolidge, to show a little enthusiasm for him, and the Massachusetts delegation could have put him over."

"I wore a Coolidge button and I was stopped by scores of delegates on the streets. One and all they wanted to know about Coolidge. What he did, who he was. Towards the end it was felt that his record was much superior to Harding's, but previous sloppiness and indifference work had nullified the opportunity. Work would have put Coolidge over."

"When the delegation gets back there will be fireworks. Part worked, part did not; those who worked were for Coolidge from the first. But there were not enough for them."

Mitchell refused to particularize as to who was to blame. He praised for tantaneous applause of the whole proceedings. He was acclaimed. Witness the way his name swept the convention when he was placed in nomination for the vice-presidency."

MRS. HENRI CHAPDELAINE

I was in such a weakened condition that I had no courage for anything, and the best part of my time was passed in resting, as I was always tired. This state of affairs was brought on by the fact that I had to start working at a very early age. My grandmother, who had used RED PILLS and had great confidence in them, made me take them for a while and they did me an immense amount of good. In fact, after taking them regularly I am now in the best of health, have a good complexion and am happy to be feeling so good.

THE RIVER OF COMMERCE

Is the Stream That Flows Alongside the Highway of Life

BY W. B. COLVER
Chairman, Federal Trade Commission.
The oldest business in the world; the greatest business in the world; the universal business of the world; is the business of living.

Leading from the cradle to the grave is the broad highway of life. Each one of us must travel that road. There are no return tickets. The price of the one-way ticket is the cost of living.

The whole purpose and end of all government and of all civilization, and of commerce and industry, and of art and invention, is to keep unbroken the procession of human beings who travel the highway. As the grave receives a pilgrim, it is necessary that another must start from the cradle if the endless life-chain is not to be broken.

To the end that life may be made possible and pleasant, all the labor and ingenuity of mankind is exercised. It is in the general welfare that children may be decently born of sound bodies and brains; that they may be decently fed and their minds and bodies so developed that each can do his share of the world's work when his turn comes, pay his passage down the highway of life and provide somewhat for a comfortable old age.

Alongside the highway of life runs the broad river of commerce, upon whose mighty tide float countless craft freighted with the fuel and the food, the clothing and the materials for shelter, as well as the pleasures and luxuries which supply the daily needs of the pilgrims on the highway. It is the theory of our laws that this great river of commerce shall be kept forever clear of artificial obstructions and that the craft which navigate it, great or small, shall each enjoy the fullest possible freedom of movement.

Whoever seeks to cut off from the shores that free access which is the right of all; whoever seeks to erect unnecessary toll-gates on the highway and to make it unnecessarily difficult or costly for the demand which arises out of human needs to be satisfied by the supply of goods which is provided out of natural resources and industry and commercial processes through the employment of human labor of hands, and brains, and the employment of capital—all of these act contrary to the common welfare.

MASS. DELEGATES PA- RADE TO STATE HOUSE

BOSTON, June 14.—The plans of Gov. Coolidge, republican vice presidential nominee, to go to Amherst for the opening of the commencement week of his alma mater and then to his home in Northampton, were changed yesterday upon receipt of a telegram from the Massachusetts delegates saying they would arrive here this afternoon and parade to the state house. The governor decided to remain in Boston to receive them, after which he will journey to his home.

Gov. Coolidge, as he was greeted by newspapermen yesterday morning, made a whimsical complaint of a statement published in a local paper that he paid $35 a month for his half house in Northampton, whereas he actually pays $32. He says that if the landlord should happen to see the story the rent might be raised to correspond and this the governor declared, he did not want to happen.

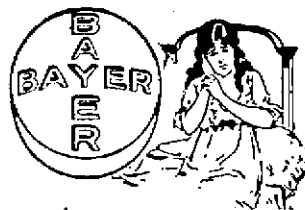

During the day the governor was besieged with callers, who came to extend their congratulations on his nomination. His secretary, Henry F. Long, continually brought him telegrams. William H. Taft in his message said:

"I congratulate you most heartily and sincerely on your nomination as vice president. The ticket of Harding and Coolidge will sweep the country and its certain victory means a useful and successful republican administration of the affairs of this country the next four years."

Gov. Clement of Vermont was the first governor to congratulate him. tel-

He is not over enthusiastic over any particular sports and finds most of his recreation in walking. In the evening he and Mrs. Coolidge attended church. Gov. Coolidge talked over the telephone yesterday to his two boys, John and Calvin, Jr., who are at Northampton.

MEXICANS TREKKING BACK OVER BORDER

DALLAS, Tex., June 14.—Hundreds of Mexicans are trekking back to the land of the tarale and their nativity as a result of the latest revolution in the southern republic, according to railroad officials who are watching the steady flow of swarthy-skinned persons toward the Rio Grande. Dallas' own "Little Mexico" which gained in population from a few score ten years ago to more than six thousand in the 1920 census is reported to be losing ground rapidly.

Since announcement of the death of Venustiano Carranza, 75 Mexicans, men, women and children purchased tickets here for the border. Since then, railroad men said, from 30 to 50 citizens of the nation to the south have been leaving daily. Similar conditions are said to exist at other southwestern cities.

Leading Mexican residents here declare confidence in the present revolution is responsible for so many natives returning home. Practically every native Mexican in Texas, they said, believes the new regime to be the foundation for a stable government in their revolution-torn country.

PREDICTS CROSS COUNTRY AIR MAIL

SAN ANTONIO, June 14.—Mail airplanes carrying 60,000 letters will be traveling between New York and San Francisco by next autumn, according to a prediction of Otto Praeger, second assistant postmaster general, who arrived here to spend a few days visiting friends.

He was accompanied by John A. Jordan, superintendent of construction of the air mail service of the postoffice department.

"We hope to inaugurate the transcontinental airplane mail service by Sept. 1 at the latest," Mr. Praeger said. "It is planned to supplant the mail car by the airplane and thus cut the time it takes a letter to cross the continent by more than one-half." Fifty specially constructed planes will be used in the transcontinental service, Mr. Praeger added, with four or five reserve planes for every one in service. No attempt, he said, will be made to fly at night.

TINGALING GETS A LETTER

While Tingaling, the fairy landlord, on his specks and looking it over and Nancy and Nick, the twins (in their little Green Shoes) and the Magical Mushroom too, were on their way home from Wally Woodchuck's house, an idea occurred to the fairy and he stopped suddenly.

Tingaling fished around in his pocket and hauled out a rumpled paper. "I received a sassy letter from Chirk," Chirk says he won't pay any more

"CHIRK SAYS HE WON'T PAY ANY MORE RENT BECAUSE THE ROOF LEAKS," EXPLAINED TINGALING.

"Jumping crickets!" he exclaimed, "if this isn't rent day! It's the thirty-second of the month and I always collect my rents on that day. I'll have to get busy right away, and if you kiddies wish to go along, you're welcome. You might possibly run across your lost monkey if he's visiting here, you know."

Nick and his sister were delighted for many reasons. Never before had they had an opportunity to go inside the animals' houses in the Land-of-Deer-Knows-Where, looked extremely interesting. Having their Magical Shoes they could go anywhere they wished, even into Tiny Goat's house Chimpunk yesterday," he said, putting rent because the roof leaks, and the stairs need fixing, and the walls are damp, and the door-bell won't ring, and the bathroom's out of order, and the pantry window's broken, and the wallpaper's coming off, and the doors are sprung, and the water pipe is busted (he said busted)."

"Outside of that I suppose it's all right," smiled the wise old Mushroom.

"Sure!" nodded Tingaling, jingling his bells emphatically. "We'll go right around and fix him. If he doesn't pay me, I'll tie the bells all over him, and he'll hate that so, he'll pay me 10 cents!"

BRITISH ANNOUNCE PALESTINE POLICY

LONDON, June 14.—The general principles which will be followed by the new administration in Palestine were announced yesterday by Sir Herbert Samuel, high commissioner for Palestine. Sir Herbert said: "Complete religious liberty will be maintained in Palestine. Places sacred to the great religions will remain in control of the adherents of those religions. Civilian administration for the country will be established immediately. The higher ranks will consist of British officials of ability and experience. The other ranks will be open to the local population, irrespective of creed. Order will be firmly enforced. The economic development of the country will be actively promoted. In accordance with the decision of the allied and associated powers, measures will be adopted to reconstruct the Jewish national home in Palestine. The yearnings of the Jewish people for 2000 years of which the modern Zionist movement is the latest expression, will at last be realized."

Replies to "Arraignment of Postal Authorities" at Chicago Convention

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Postmaster General Burleson issued a statement yesterday declaring that in the light of the truth, the "arraignment of the postal authorities" by the republican party at Chicago, "falls harmless at their feet."

Replying to the declaration in the platform that the present administration destroyed the efficiency of the telephone and telegraph service when controlled by the government, Mr. Burleson quotes from statements of the American Telephone and Telegraph company; President Charleston of the Western Union Telegraph Co. and others, that properties were successfully handled by the government and returned in good condition. Mr. Burleson says that the republican organization in a tentative draft of its platform adopted a "sinister insinuation" that during government control the wires were used for purposes of "political patronage and political espionage." He declares that of the four new places created for the wire administration, three were filled with republicans and challenges proof that there was "even an attempt at political espionage."

This charge is not made without a purpose, he declares, adding:

"Watch the amount of a certain contribution to the republican campaign fund and it will be disclosed that a certain interest, which having failed to control or even influence a republican congress by sly falsehoods, because both sides could be heard, temporarily got in its work on the great republican organization, where the truth could not be heard and apparently was not desired."

Taking up the platform's declaration commending the republican congress for increasing the pay of postal employees, Mr. Burleson says that instead of adopting his plan, "which would have resulted in an increase of salaries of postoffice clerks and city letter carriers to a maximum basis of $2,062 yearly and like increases to those in the other lines of postal activity," congress granted "a horizontal increase which gives some an increase not deserved and denies to thousands of faithful and efficient employees increases commensurate with the work and to which they are fairly entitled."

Referring to the statement in the first platform plank made public at Chicago that the republicans reduced postage rates, Mr. Burleson says the congress not only did not make such reduction but failed to take favorable action on his recommendation that the postage on drop or city letters be made 1 cent instead of 2, "after an acknowledgment that it should be done."

NATIONAL CASH REGISTERS

THE LOWELL SUN

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Proprietor
SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.
Member of the Associated Press

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

The old theory that more males are born than females during and after a war appears to be borne out by the reports from London that the birth returns show a tremendous excess of baby boys.

The Sun extends its congratulations to the members of the Lowell post of the American Legion who have succeeded in making their organization the largest of its kind in New England.

Tag days come one after another in Lowell and people learn how much easier and pleasanter it is to give than they would have thought possible before the new way of gathering funds for worthy purposes was invented.

The radicals at the Montreal convention of the American Federation of Labor who undertook to overthrow the leadership of Samuel Gompers showed courage considering that Mr. Gompers has been defeating similar movements for the last forty years.

There was one creditable performance in connection with the Chicago convention. Mayor Thompson of Chicago, socialist and "Red" sympathizer that he is and pro-German as he has been—resigned his seat rather than carry out instructions to vote for Lowden of big slush fund fame.

It is rather difficult to get very much excited these warm sunny summer days over the non-arrival of coal in Lowell in anything like the usual quantities, nevertheless, unless something is done to relieve the situation promptly there is good reason for anticipating that there will be some heatless homes hereabouts next winter.

It is pleasant to learn that Mayor Thompson approves of The Sun's suggestion that more than $800 is needed for a proper municipal celebration of the Fourth of July in Lowell. It is understood that an additional $900 appropriation will be forthcoming and the people of the city will have some other indications than the date on their calendars that the nation's birthday is passing.

Hon. John F. Fitzgerald has been quoting the birth and death statistics of Boston to prove that the recent government count of the noses of that city is incorrect and the census bureau quotes the same figures to prove that the count was correct which proves that there may be some basis for Disraeli's famous remark: "There are lies, there are d— lies, and there are statistics."

Federal Reserve banks are criticized because they have adopted the policy of checking reckless speculation. This means that men will not be given credit to a dangerous extent beyond their ability to pay. In other words, the banks are not to underwrite the plungers who endeavor to handle very large transactions on small capital, depending upon the banks to come to their aid in case of pinch or necessity. This places a heavy responsibility upon the banks and one which they very wisely refuse to carry. They are restricting credit to reasonable limits, especially in case of speculators who try to get rich quick by turning over large transactions on the margin method.

STREETS FOR PLAY

The proposition to close certain streets or portions of streets to vehicular travel in order to afford security to children playing there is one that if wisely handled, may be productive of good to all concerned. In the first place it will allow some security to the children of congested districts who will remain on the streets anyhow during the greater part of the day. If sections of streets usually occupied by children at play were closed, there would certainly be fewer auto accidents. The sections to be closed should be such as the autos can get around without inconvenience. This would apply to Pleasant street from Pond to Andover, Chapel from Union to Charles, Charles from Central to Gorham and many other sections of streets similarly situated.

On some streets taken possession of by boys for the purpose of playing ball, the children practically refuse to move aside to let autos pass. If certain streets were designated as playgrounds, the children would gather there and fewer would be exposed to danger on the open streets.

The superintendent of parks and the commissioner of streets after a conference and survey of the streets in the congested districts, could decide what street sections could be closed without any great inconvenience to anybody and with benefit to the children.

THE WOMEN'S VOTE

Leaders of the national women's party say that they intend to oppose the republican nominee for the presidency and that they will trail him on all his speaking trips, picket his meetings and ask embarrassing questions at every opportunity. The leaders also say that they propose to conduct an active campaign against all republican candidates for the United States senate and house of representatives.

All this is to be done despite the fact that the republican platform contains a plank favorable to woman suffrage. The reason the women propose to fight against republican candidates is that the leaders of the party have failed to bring to bear pressure on the republican governors of the states of Vermont and Connecticut to call their legislatures in special session to ratify the suffrage amendment.

The attitude of the women seems to be more or less justified. The legislatures of both states are known to be ready to ratify the amendment. They are prevented from doing so by the persistent refusal of the governors to permit the legislatures to act. Governor Holcomb of Connecticut is completely subservient to the wishes of the party leaders. In only lesser degree is Governor Clement known to be under their control.

No one can blame the women for feeling that they have been handed a "lemon" in the platform of a party whose leaders are not manifesting any very great amount of enthusiasm toward having the polls thrown open to them in November.

ALL DISSATISFIED

If all of the elements that are expressing dissatisfaction with the Chicago platform unite to defeat the ticket next fall the republican party will have a big fight on its hands.

The laboring men, through the American Federation of Labor at its annual convention, has condemned the platform makers for "turning their back on labor," and including a plank in the platform that, it is claimed "constitutes a denial of labor's demands and contemplates the erection of government machinery for the coercion of labor and for the suppression and limitation of its proper, lawful and normal activities."

Former service men say they are out for the scalp of the party because of its failure to indorse a bonus for soldiers.

Business men are condemning the platform because if the policy that it enunciates in regard to the League of Nations is carried out it will mean the indefinite postponement of peace which is considered so desirable by the business world. The republican Boston Herald admits this in an editorial in which it says, "The business community wants peace and in the next five months this demand may gain some momentum."

The friends of Irish freedom are far from being in an amicable attitude toward the platform that passes over all mention of the cause in which they are interested.

Advocates of deflation are finding fault because, although there is a plank favoring deflation, it fails to make any specific mention of the way in which the party intends to bring deflation about.

There are other dissatisfied groups that might be mentioned, but the list as it is, is long enough to show that the republican party has a tough row to hoe from now until next November.

FLAG DAY

Today will be observed throughout the United States the anniversary of the adoption of the American flag in 1777, as now used, except that a new star has been added for every new state admitted to the union since then. At that time there were 13 stars with thirteen stripes alternating red and white. Of less importance is the history of the flag, however, than a thorough knowledge of what it represents, the union of states, one and indivisible with a constitution of principles providing for a republican form of government in which the sovereignty rests with the people, not in any one man or number of men, but in the citizens having the right to vote.

When the American citizen has examined the governments of the world with intelligence, he will find that he lives under the freest and best of all, under a flag which offers a refuge to the oppressed of other lands and endows them with the attributes of citizenship if they decide to withdraw their allegiance from foreign rulers and take the oath of allegiance to the United States.

The Stars and Stripes is the hallowed emblem that floated over Washington at the surrender of the British at Yorktown, October 19, 1781, making this republic free and independent forever; it was the flag that waved over the bloody fields of the Civil war and finally at Lee's surrender to General Grant at Appomattox on April 9, 1865; it was this flag also that inspired the United States soldiers in the heroic action that ended the world war at Chateau Thierry and the Argonne; and it was the same flag that floated proudly over the American warships which laid the mine barrage that hemmed the German submarines in close quarters, and finally drove them from the lanes of commerce.

To this flag must every true American give his undivided allegiance, his loyalty and devotion and stand ready, if need be, to defend it with his life.

"Forever float that standard sheet, Whose breathes the foe but falls before us,

With Freedom's soil beneath our feet, And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us."

THE NOMINEES

In nominating Senator Harding for president and Governor Coolidge for vice president, the republican party has probably made the very best selection possible from the standpoint of expediency and practical politics.

Harding is not a towering national figure, it is true, but he is a man of clean record, free from the objection of representing the interests of or having attained the nomination by questionable means. True, he is rather conservative in his policies, but those who have watched his career testify that he is a man of ability and resource who, if elected, will unquestionably prove equal to the great responsibilities of the office. With his experience in the halls of legislation in his own state of Ohio as well as in Washington, he is quite familiar with the needs of this nation and should be able to give the country a progressive, sane and sane administration.

Undoubtedly the convention in centering upon Senator Harding had in mind the necessity of placing Ohio back in the republican column if the party is to win in November. In that light his nomination shows good strategy in planning against the possible selection of Governor Cox by the democrats.

The choice of Governor Coolidge for second place on the ticket will make a national appeal as coming from Massachusetts, the birthplace of American freedom and the home of two former presidents and four vice presidents. But the main thing that made Coolidge such a commanding figure was his firm and fearless stand for law and order when the police of Boston left the city unprotected and a prey to mob rule and lawless hands. The fact that the western states were the leaders in demanding his nomination, shows how popular he is outside his own state.

Harding and Coolidge have a united party behind them; they are both good patriotic Americans and taken for what they represent it will require a very strong democratic ticket and a thoroughly united party to beat them. Having spoken thus candidly of the republican ticket we may add that if the democrats hope to name a winning ticket, they will have to exercise good judgment in their selection and they will also have to eliminate all ultra radical issues from their platform.

There is an opportunity for the democrats to win if they adopt the right kind of platform and select as their candidates men who will rise above factional strife and stand for the principles of democracy and for the safeguarding of the rights, interests and the freedom of all the people.

SEEN AND HEARD

Has anybody seen any June roses yet?

Now for a deluge of graduation exercises!

Take care of the pennies and the war tax will take care of itself.

Things might be worse. Think of Noah's time, when water was high.

Now tell us how much the candidates for the vice presidency have spent.

Some statisticians should figure out how many times could be inflated with the by-product of the Chicago convention.

Pretty hard to resist buying a tag with such attractive saleswomen on the job as those who were about town on Saturday.

Some people never take any interest in the structure of government until they want to know how many votes it takes to nominate a presidential candidate.

When the modern young man calls upon the modern young woman and offers her a pound of sugar instead of the antiquated box of candy, he may well say "sweets to the sweet."

When we hear them talking evolution we think of the visit we paid our old home in New Brunswick last summer and how we dodged automobiles in the roads where, as school-children, we "watched out" for bears.

Unlucky Welcome

The man in the next car was pounding on the wall. "Look here," he cried, "I can't sleep with your kid yelling like that! If you don't make him stop, I will!"

"Come in, sir—come in," said the kid's father. "You'll be as welcome as the flowers in spring."—Edinburgh Scotsman.

Father's Revenge

Peter Thompson went to visit his son in Montreal. It was his first visit to the city and the young man showed him all the sights, concluding with an ascent of Mount Royal. In a burst of enthusiasm, Young Thompson said: "See, father; isn't it wonderful down there?"

"Well," said his father, "if it's so wonderful down there, what did you drag me up here for?"—Selected.

Might Have Been

"I might have married a millionaire," declared Everywoman. "One of my old schoolmates is now one." "And several of your schoolmates are working right at this time for $10 a week," retorted Everyman, "while one of them is in jail. I guess in marrying a chap getting $1500 a year your average is fairly good."

And then Everybody set up a howl and they had to stop quarreling to attend to him.—Mass. Tech. Yoo Doo.

A Surer Shot

A doctor took it into his head to go rabbit hunting and so he started out quite early on a beautiful morning, fully armed for the sport. About 4 o'clock in the afternoon he returned, fired out and empty handed, telling his wife he hadn't killed a thing; whereupon she remarked triumphantly: "I told you so!" adding in the next breath: "If you had stayed at home and attended to your legitimate business you might have been more successful."—London Daily.

Expensive Luxury

The social worker was doing his best to console with the inmates of the county jail. "And you, my poor man," he queried. "How long are you confined for?" "Six months and six days," replied the poor man, cheerfully.

"Why, that's a peculiar sentence. And what are the six days for?" "Oh, I dunno," responded the convict with nonchalance. "War tax, I guess. Everything comes high these days."—American Legion Weekly.

Each Had a Wife

His flier was out of gas. And it was out of gas on a country road seven miles from town, and the rain was falling in sheets.

Leaving his wife in the protection of the machine he dashed out into the middle of the road, holding high in the air an under-sized umbrella that it might protect his new, newly pressed spring suit, while he shouted at a motorist, whose headlights came dimly through the rain: "Stop! I've got my wife!"

"So have I!" interrupted the motorist, who had gas and his car sped on without a let-up.

And then it did rain.—Kansas City Star.

Retreat

(Copyright, 1920, N.E.A.) Now the dandelion looked up and said: "The apple blossom, and thus he cried: 'I am child of the sun. I am soldier-bred.' And time after time is my cold renewed."

All through the long, long season, But the blossom above me is dimly pale And its petals fall when the first comes breeze!"

Then the blossom answered the flower in the air: "I have been in Vienna some years ago, and at the time the judges were 14 judges. The first prize went to a wine merchant with a long nose and the second to a man with a mustache 20 inches long."

WIRE STRIKE AT

HAVANA SETTLED

HAVANA, June 14.—Government officials and telephone operators employed on the national lines have reached an agreement by which the operators' strike which has been in progress for several days, will end today. An increase in wages amounting to virtually 10 per cent has been granted, and service will be re-established at once. The men arrested in this city and points inland, charged with violation for participating in the strike have been ordered released.

The only treaty show for men on record was one held in Vienna some years ago, at which the judges were 14 judges. The first prize went to a wine merchant with a long nose and the second to a man with a mustache 20 inches long.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

"How did the half votes come in the republican convention?" asks a correspondent. Some states sent double the number of delegates to which they were entitled and in such cases each delegate had half a vote.

Here are a few of the things that attracted the attention of the Man About Town during the past couple of days:

A young man carrying his bank check book in his hip pocket while wearing his coat on his arm.

Victor Rochette running to his work at the Lowell pharmacy because he was a little late.

A man weighing about 200 pounds comfortably seated in a small cart drawn by a 100-pound pony.

A badly torn American flag on a local bank building.

The janitor of the police station washing windows in the court room and referred to by a pedestrian as "second-story worker."

An official of the Five Cents savings bank giving his seat to a lady clerk of the bank in a one-man car.

A local business man with his niece children enjoying a ride in a Ford.

The Lowell chamber of commerce is extending its reputation for doing things beyond the immediate confines of this city, judging from the warm reception which the project of its playgrounds committee to convert highways into places where children may play has been received in Boston. City Clerk James Donovan who is acting mayor of the Hub in the absence of Mayor Peters heard of the Lowell plan and has given it his enthusiastic approval. He sees no reason why it cannot apply to Boston as well as Lowell. The idea of the local chamber is to rope off selected streets at certain hours so that vehicles cannot pass and thus allow children to play in congested districts without danger of accidents. Acting Mayor Donovan told Boston newspapers that Boston should have had some such plan long ago but it remained for the Lowell chamber of commerce to agitate the scheme. Mr. Donovan will bring the matter to the attention of Mayor Peters upon the latter's return from Maine next Tuesday.

"SAVE THE BABIES" TAG DAY RESULTS

The treasury of the Lowell Guild is richer by the sum of $199.12, as a result of the collections made on "Save the Babies" tag day, Saturday. The officers of the guild are deeply gratified at the response that was made by the people of Lowell to the appeal for additional funds.

"Lowell made a splendid response to our appeal," said Mrs. Edward N. Burke, treasurer of tag day, "and we can now go ahead with our work of helping the babies more hopefully than ever before. We are especially pleased at the support given by persons who have been benefited either directly or indirectly by the work of the guild in the past. It is also a source of pleasure that so many who had little or no knowledge of the guild or its work became contributors."

Special credit is given by Mrs. Burke to the Crescent A.C. for help given the cause, at the boxing exhibition at Spaulding park, Saturday afternoon. The girl collectors at the park were assisted by George Donnelly and Frank Roane, who became active solicitors for funds at the ring-side. A stirring appeal for contributions was made by Mayor Thompson from the ring. The collection amounted to $164.30.

BIG CHIEF BACK FROM CONVENTION

After attending the annual convention of the International Association of Police Chiefs in Detroit, Michigan, during the past week, Supt. Redmond Welch resumed his duties at the local police station this morning. The number present included chiefs from all over the country and Canada, and also a few from Scotland, Yards, England.

Reports of all the committees of the convention were submitted and the convention went on record as favoring co-operation with the federal authorities in ridding the country of all radicals.

As a special feature during the week, the police department of Detroit gave a special demonstration in a parade headed by the police band of 45 pieces. Drill by the new recruits and an exhibition of horsemanship were shown at other times. In the election of officers, nearly all of the past officials were reappointed. President Guigley of Rochester, N. Y., presided.

BAPTIZED IN THE MERRIMACK RIVER

Six persons were baptized by immersion in the waters of the Merrimack river, at the new municipal bathhouse, yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Guy L. McQuade of the Hanley Street Baptist church.

Children's day exercises were held at the church in the morning, under the direction of the pastor, assisted by Misses Marjorie Emery and Bertha Baker.

LEGIONERS ATTACK DUAL CITIZENSHIP

HONOLULU, T. H., June 14.—The Hawaiian department of the American Legion has aimed a blow at dual citizenship among the Japanese of the islands by launching a campaign for the organization of a society of American Citizens of Japanese Ancestry, the key-stone of whose pledge will be disavowal of Japanese dual citizenship laws. The proposed constitution provides that any American citizen of Japanese parentage over the age of 16 years may join the society after he has signed the pledge declaring his wholehearted allegiance to the United States.

Inexhaustible Power Developed By Submerged Windmill

F. A. Welsborn, inventor, and a drawing showing his patented submerged windmill, seen from above.

N. E. A. Staff Special

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, June 12.—Enough electricity to supply the entire civilized world can be generated by the Mississippi river, without the construction of a single dam or other obstruction.

This is the statement of George P. A. Welsborn of this city, member of the national institute of inventors, and of the French inventors' academy, who has just received, after years of labor, a patent on a submerged water wheel which has proven most successful in spite of all scientific theories to the contrary.

Until recently it has been accepted that no water wheel would function entirely submerged. But, working on the principle of the windmill which is entirely submerged in air, Welsborn has invented a water wheel which will operate and continue to generate electricity as long as there is a slight movement or current in the water in which the wheel is placed.

With the new wheel, no dam to create a heavy fall will be necessary. Thus it can be used at the side of rivers, or in the ocean where the tides can flow through it, and no obstruction to traffic occurs.

The wheel, which is said to have already been given a thorough test, generates electricity by utilizing the force of the current. One of the wheels installed in a box 12 inches wide and 3½ feet long, anchored in a stream flowing only half a mile an hour, is said to have generated sufficient electricity to operate a pump which drew up 34,000 gallons of water per day for an indefinite period.

Welsborn, who is nationally known as a practical inventor, has 27 other inventions to his credit.

LOWELL PEOPLE HURT IN TWO AUTO ACCIDENT

Joseph O. Perry and Mrs. Marie Malhot of this city, and Fred Boucher of South Billerica, and four other persons were severely injured in an automobile accident which occurred yesterday afternoon, in Reading, when the automobile in which they were riding crashed through the railing of a bridge to the railroad tracks below. One of the injured, Fred Potpaine of 20 Church street, Lynn, had his lungs pierced by broken ribs and is now in a very serious condition at the Melrose hospital.

The other injured and their injuries are as follows: Joseph O. Perry, owner and driver, 353 Middlesex street, Lowell, dislocated left shoulder and fractured ribs, at the Lowell General Hospital; Mrs. Marie Malhot, 161 Fletcher street, Lowell, broken arm and multiple bruises and cuts, at the Lowell General Hospital; Fred Potpaine of 20 Church street, Lynn, and Louis Codar, 54 Market street, Lynn, fractured jaw and cuts about the head, at the Melrose hospital; Miss Mary Jolly of Lynn and Joseph Janson of Manchester, N. H., who escaped with slight injuries and returned to their homes.

The automobile party was traveling from Wilmington Centre and as it neared the turn leading to the railroad bridge at Reading, the auto swerved diagonally across the bridge, struck the railing, broke through and was hurled to the tracks, snapping a telegraph pole in its fall. An express train, which was coming at full speed, was brought to a stop before striking the automobile.

The injured, most of whom were unconscious, were taken to nearby homes and hurried calls for doctors and ambulances were sent out and after first aid was administered, the wounded persons were taken to various hospitals.

At the Lowell General hospital, it was stated that both Mr. Perry and Mrs. Malhot were resting comfortably and that both were expected to recover.

MEMORIAL SERVICE BY CLAN GRANT

Many members of Clan Grant, 151 Lowell, left this city yesterday noon to attend a memorial service conducted under the auspices of the grand clan of Massachusetts. In the afternoon, in the First Congregational church of West Somerville, the return was made early in the evening. Grand Chief Bertram Glencross directed the service and the sermon was delivered by Rev. David Fraser, pastor of the church.

The following from this city were present: Chief Samuel Johnson, Alexander Ross, secretary; Noval Robinson, senior henchman; Harry Thompson, piper; James MacCrandles, past chief and now senior henchman of the grand clan; Alexander Ray and Peter Cadden; and Classmen John Kinsley, Thomas Kirk and Frank MacLean.

The United States navy took up more than 55,000 mines in the Atlantic in less than six months after the armistice.

LOWELL PEOPLE HURT IN TWO KILLED BY FALL FROM SUBWAY TRAIN

NEW YORK, June 14.—Two men were killed and a third seriously injured yesterday when the door of a south-bound Lexington avenue express train slid open while the train was passing Astor place. Three men were standing on the rear platform of the first car. Two of them were thrown out and run over by the express, while the third, who had fallen partly through the door, was pulled back into the car by other passengers.

ARGENTINE SUGAR To Be Landed at New York at 15 Cents a Pound

BUENOS AIRES, June 14.—Based on the domestic price at which Frederic J. Stimson, United States ambassador to Argentina obtained 14,000 tons sugar for the account of the United States, plus the transportation cost, it is estimated the sugar will be landed in New York at 15 cents a pound. It probably will require five ships to transport the sugar.

President Irigoyen's action in waiving the exportation restrictions on the solicitation of Ambassador Stimson is considered here to have been decided upon as a special favor to the United States.

In addition to the sugar obtained for Mr. Stimson for the United States government, it is learned that private interests have contracted for a total of 50,000 tons for exportation to the United States.

POLISH ARMY EVACUATES KIEV

WARSAW, June 14.—(By the Associated Press)—The Polish forces, carrying out orders to retreat to a line of defense in the Ukraine, have begun the evacuation of Kiev, having previously destroyed the bridges over the Dnieper, according to an official statement issued today. The realignment is proceeding in perfect order, the statement said.

Fighting on the northern front has brought victory to the Poles, who have ousted bolsheviks from territory gained in the recent offensive. The Poles are consolidating their lines from the Dvina southward along the Bersina. Gen. Budenny, the Russian commander who fought Denikine, is bringing up reinforcements, the dispatches say, but the military authorities declare that the fight for Kiev is not yet ended by any means.

Orderly Retreat

WARSAW, June 14.—General Smigley's retreat before the Russian bolsheviks in Ukraine has been executed in perfect order, according to an official statement issued at army headquarters here.

The advance of the bolsheviks upon Czernobyl forced the retreat. In Poland the enemy has lost severely while trying to break the Polish front near Glibow. One thousand bolsheviks under cover of artillery fire reached the right bank of the Dnieper, but were cut off and annihilated. Two hundred were made prisoner and many were drowned. There is intense activity in the region of Lake Scho and to the northward.

GOVERNOR CALVIN COOLIDGE
Republican Nominee for Vice President

include primary elections of senators and representatives.

Opposed the resolution to tax campaign contributions 100 per cent. when they exceeded $500.

Voted for the passage over the president's veto of the bill repealing daylight saving.

Supported the resolution providing for the withdrawal of American troops from Russia.

Cast his vote to sustain the ruling of the chair that wartime prohibition was out of order in the agricultural appropriation bill.

COOLIDGE AT DESK TO "FINISH HIS JOB"

BOSTON, June 14.—Governor Coolidge, the republican nominee for vice president, returned to his desk at the state house today, to "finish his job." This was the word which came from the executive chamber in reply to the question whether he would resign in order to devote himself entirely to the republican national campaign in the interests of Senator Harding and himself.

The governor will offer his services to the republican managers to assist in the campaign, but according to his secretary, Henry F. Long, his activity will be conditional on his ability to do full justice to the demands of his present office. He has finished every job he has ever undertaken and intends to complete his record as governor without alighting the job in hand in order to try for another, the secretary said.

Important Matters Before Him

Governor Coolidge has before him several important state matters, including a special session of the legislature, next fall, to recodify the statutes of the commonwealth and supervision of the reorganization of nearly all state departments.

To one of the friends who congratulated him on his nomination for the vice presidency, the governor remarked: "I don't know about that, the governorship of Massachusetts has always been considered the second most important office in the United States."

Congratulations Pour In

To the many telegrams of congratulation received yesterday, scores were added today. Harry Daugherty, manager of Senator Harding's campaign, sent a message of satisfaction that Governor Coolidge was to be the senator's running mate; Senator Lenroot of Wisconsin, opponent of Governor Coolidge for the vice presidential nomination, sent his congratulations, and Charles E. Hughes also sent word applauding the convention's choice.

The Massachusetts delegates from Chicago are to parade to the state house this afternoon to honor the governor.

A machine has been invented which can dig up 50,000 trees a day.

GLAD JOHNSON WAS ELIMINATED

PARIS, June 14.—Few newspapers in this city venture to comment on the action of the republican national convention at Chicago although they all devote considerable space to the nomination of Warren G. Harding for president and Calvin Coolidge for vice president.

"It is a triumph of the machine of the party organization, or its bosses, over personalities sufficiently powerful or well supplied with funds to be in a position to appeal directly to the nation," declares Pertinax, political editor of the Echo de Paris.

In examining the platform of the republican party, Pertinax pays special attention to the possible resuscitation of the Panama controversy and the Canadian wood pulp question. This posture relative to England and Canada, he finds, to a certain extent symptomatic, but he adds: "We need not fear that such an attitude will degenerate into abstention from European affairs or hostility toward Europe. Too many elements of the republican party are bound up in our affairs and our preoccupations. The silence observed regarding Ireland shows the desire felt at Chicago to keep on good terms with England."

"Mr. Harding is a champion of the international political point of view which raised the American senate against the Versailles treaty," says the Journal. "But all Frenchmen are greatly satisfied with the elimination of Hiram Johnson, whose heart and spirit have never been greatly in favor of France.

The newspaper comments on the fact that Mr. Harding is an intimate friend of Myron T. Herrick, former United States ambassador to France, and a real friend of this country.

SITUATION AT AVLONA SAFE

ROME, June 13.—Government officials consider the situation at Avlona safe, a brigade of Italian soldiers originally destined for Turkey, having been landed there. It is confirmed that in addition to 12 dead and 50 wounded, prisoners numbering 800 soldiers and 50 officers have been lost by the Italians in recent fighting at Avlona. They were, for the most part, isolated contingents which were surrounded and compelled to surrender because of lack of food and ammunition.

ATTEMPT TO KILL GEN. ALESSANDRI OF CHILI

SANTIAGO, Chili, June 13.—An attempt to assassinate Arturo Alessandri, presidential candidate of the liberal alliance, occurred this morning. Three shots were fired at him, but he was uninjured.

Senator Alessandri was speaking from the balcony of his house when the shots were fired, but his son rushed at his assailant, disturbing the would-be assassin's aim so that the last two bullets flew wild.

Returns From the Convention

party made their way through the cheering crowd at the station, pausing just long enough for two flash-light photographs to be taken, an incident that was repeated upon his arrival at his home.

Senator Harding told the Associated Press, he would remain in Washington about a week. He will not receive formal notification of his nomination until he returns to his home at Marion, Ohio.

Congratulations upon his nomination continued to reach Senator Harding at his office, while at his home. Mrs. Harding received numerous enthusiastic messages from their personal friends. Many of the neighbors had remained up to witness the homecoming and their greeting was like that given by the crowd at the station.

The senator thanked those who had gathered to welcome them, but made nothing in the nature of a statement. Among those who accompanied the senator from Chicago were Senators Lodge of Massachusetts, republican leader, and Fernald of Maine.

BRIEF SKETCH OF NOMINEE HARDING

Warren G. Harding has always been a resident of Ohio, which state he has represented as United States senator since 1914. In private business life he is publisher of the Marion, Ohio, Star.

He was born on a farm, near the village of Blooming Grove, Morrow county, Ohio, Nov. 2, 1865, the eldest of eight children. His father, George T. Harding, was a country doctor whose forebears came from Scotland. Before going to Ohio, the Hardings were residents of Pennsylvania, where some of them were massacred by Indians. Others fought in the revolutionary war. The mother of Warren, Mrs. Phoebe Dickerson, was descended from an old-time Holland Dutch family, the Van Kirsks.

In his youth Warren Harding lived the life of a farmer boy attending the village school until 14 years of age, when he entered Ohio Central college of Liberia, from which he was graduated. As editor of the college paper he first displayed a talent for journalism. He was obliged to stop school now and then and earn the money with which to pursue his college course.

At one time he cut corn, at another painted barns and at still another drove a team and helped to grade the roadbed of a new railway. At 17 he taught a district school and played a horn in the village brass band.

At odd times he worked in the village printing office, in time becoming an expert typesetter and later a linotype operator. He is a practical pressman and a job printer, and as a "make-up man" is said to have few equals. The lucky piece he has carried as a senator is the old printer's rule he used when he was sticking type.

In 1894 Dr. Harding moved his family to Marion. A short time afterward the father purchased for Warren Harding The Star, then a small paper.

On the paper Warren Harding performed every function from devil to managing editor. In all the years the senator has owned it there has never been a strike or a threatened one.

Senator Harding is closely identified with many other large business enterprises in Marion and other parts of the state. He is director of a bank and several large manufacturing plants and is a trustee of the Trinity Baptist church.

Mr. Harding has twice represented the 13th senatorial district of Ohio in the state legislature and served one term as lieutenant governor. At the 1911 election Harding was elected United States senator by a majority of more than 100,000, running 73,000 ahead of control bodies throughout the country. He is a member of the committee on foreign relations. Senator Harding married Miss Florence Kling in 1891.

592 VOTES GAVE HARDING VICTORY

CHICAGO, June 14.—Warren G. Harding, United States senator from Ohio, was nominated for the presidency Saturday evening by the republican national convention after a deadlock for nine ballots and which forced out of the running all the original favorites.

As his running mate, the convention named Gov. Calvin Coolidge of Massachusetts, upsetting a plan of combination by the Harding backers to nominate for the place Senator Irvine L. Lenroot of Wisconsin.

The collapse of the forces of Gov. Frank O. Lowden and their transfer in large part to Senator Harding put the Ohio candidate over.

Gen. Wood lost heavily, however, when the Harding drift began, and Senator Johnson, the third of the trio of leaders on the early balloting Friday, also went steadily down hill.

Entering the convention as a candidate distinctly of the "dark horse" class, Senator Harding got only 64 votes on the first ballot Friday, and on the second he dropped to 56. When the convention adjourned Friday night, at the end of the fourth ballot, he had 61.

The final checking up on the tenth and final ballot showed 592 for Harding with only 13 left supporting Lowden, 137 for Wood and 50 for Johnson. At their best, earlier in the day, the Wood people had mustered 312 votes and the Lowden forces 311. Johnson's high point was 143 recorded on the second ballot on Friday.

HARDING'S RECORD IN CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, June 14.—One reason why the American Federation of Labor is so strongly opposed to Senator Warren G. Harding, republican nominee for president, aside from the straddle on labor evolved by the republican platform-makers in Chicago, is found in the fact that he voted for the Esch-Cummings railroad bill with the original anti-strike clause.

Senator Harding also voted to limit federal control of railroads to 6 or 12 months after the end of the war, which organized labor as a rule favored its continuance for a much longer period.

The republican nominee also chose the distinction of being one of the republican senators who voted to pass the Volstead prohibition enforcement act over the veto of President Wilson.

Other important votes by Harding include the following:

For woman suffrage.

Against submission of woman suffrage amendments to state conventions instead of legislatures.

In favor of the prohibition constitutional amendment.

Against permission to the District of Columbia and for a motion to submit the question to a referendum of the citizens of Washington.

Opposed the motion of Senator Phelan of California to lift the wartime ban on liquor sales and beer.

Voted against a motion to make honorary law apply to the District of Columbia.

Voted for the Immigration bill.

STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, June 14.—The outcome of the republican national convention at the close of last week's business exerted no perceptible influence over the stock market today. The opening market today was quiet. The market was steady, although a few leaders soon became reactionary. Shipbuilding, textiles and railroads featured the market. American Woolen and Northern Pacific averaging one point gains with United States Steel, Mexican Petroleum, Republic Iron and Steel, and other prominent stocks were confined to fractions.

Taking advantage of the indifference manifested by traders to recent political and financial developments, the bears renewed their selling tactics within the first hour. Prominent stocks, equipment, oils, motors and tobacco were forced to 3 points under last week's prices and investment stocks including Canadian Pacific, Southern Railway and Reading fell 1 to 1 1/2. Another drive against the shorts in Crucible Steel effected a temporary reversal, leaders rallying moderately. Public bonds, however, were not touched. Prices experienced further impairment during the dull noon hour, pressure centering to a greater extent in equipment and tobacco. A local bearish motive showed an extreme decline of three points and Mexican Petroleum lost 1 1/2. High grade rails also recorded additional losses.

Although money rates eased later, leaders continued to lose ground, Mexican Oil showing pronounced weakness. The closing was heavy.

"MISS WYOMING" WILL ROUNDUP BIDS EAST

CHEYENNE, Wyo.—President Wilson and officials of many eastern cities will receive invitations to the annual "Frontier Days" event to be staged in Cheyenne the last week in July, right from the hands of "Miss Wyoming." Last year Helen Bonham was picked as the official poster girl and was dubbed "Miss Wyoming." Now she's on her way east as a passenger for Governor Robert D. Carey. She will travel on a cow pony in her real western outfit—fringed leather, boots and western hat. Philadelphia, New York, Pittsburg, St. Louis, Kansas City and Denver will be among the stopping-off places.

Railroad "Outlaws" Condemned in Resolution Presented at Today's Session

MONTREAL, June 14.—Central labor bodies which aided the unauthorized strike of unions during the recent railroad walkout in the United States were condemned in a resolution presented at the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor here today. The resolution was proposed by T. C. Cashem of Cleveland, in behalf of the International Switchmen's union.

Mr. Cashem charged that a number of central bodies throughout the country had aided switchmen during the unauthorized strike by raising strike funds and furnishing them with meeting halls.

The striking railroad men, he pointed out, were members of yardmen's associations which were not affiliated with the federation and were members of a rival organization. They should not have received labor's support, the resolution said.

The resolution was adopted by a vote of 1,000 to 100.

PLEDGED IN ONE LOT, TO THE HIGHEST bona fide bidder, AT UNRESTRICTED AND ABSOLUTE PUBLIC SALE, ON THE PREMISES, REGARDLESS OF ANY CONDITION OF THE WEATHER, ON FRIDAY, THE 18TH DAY OF JUNE, 1920, AT FOUR O'CLOCK P. M.

No. 70 Dummer street is a one and one-half story structure consisting of a store and a four-room tenement in very good order, and rented to one tenant, who pays $13 per month or $156 per year; the building has gas, city water, etc.

At No. 80 Dummer street is a block of four tenements, five rooms to each, and toilet, city water, etc.; in the rear of No. 80, at Nos. 9-11 is a two-tenement house of four rooms each, toilet, city water, etc., rented at $5 per month each, or $120 per year.

At No. 86 Dummer street is a cottage property containing 10 rooms, five rooms on each floor and toilet, city water, etc., occupied by one tenant who pays $15 per month, or $180 per year; in the rear of the above at No. 13, is a dwelling of the cottage type, containing six rooms and two attics, with toilet and city water.

At Nos. 90-92 Dummer street is a two-tenement house and store property; the store with two rooms and toilet, gas and city water, on first floor; six rooms on second floor, and three attics on the floor above, rented to one tenant who pays $20 per month or $240 per year. At No. 4 in the rear is the other tenement of five rooms, toilet, city water, etc., rented at $6 per month or $72 per year, making a total rent for the building of $26 a month or $312 per year.

At Nos. 5-8 in the rear of No. 92 Dummer street is a block of four tenements, two tenements of three rooms and two tenements of four rooms, toilet, city water, etc., one tenement rented at $5 per month, or $12 per year; the other tenements with a little outlay could be made to rent for an equal amount which would show an income for this building of $24 per month or $288 per year.

At Nos. 102 and 110 Dummer street is a three-story structure, containing 12 tenements, six tenements of five rooms, and six tenements of four rooms, toilet, city water, etc. Tenements are rented, eight tenements at $23 per week each, and four tenements at $2 per week each, making a total income for the building of $26 per week or $1352 per year.

The lot has sewer, gas and water connections, and is of good dimensions; has a splendid area of about 22,540 square feet, with a magnificent frontage on Dummer street of about 234 feet, and an average depth of approximately 50 feet, thereby enabling the erection, if one so desired, of a modern mercantile building, and with its location in the very center of industry, within 350 feet of City Hall, it can rightly be termed a downtown business location. With the completion of the Cardinal O'Connell Parkway, it gives to this property an unobstructed view of, and entrance from Merrimack street.

The premises, at present, have an actual income of $2192 per year, and with the expenditure of a reasonable amount on the unoccupied portions, can be made to return a much greater revenue.

This sale is of unusual importance, being a downtown property with many advantages for future development, owing to its character and lot area, and should especially attract real estate investors, and operators, as the opportunity is seldom, if ever, offered to purchase at open competition a property of this magnitude, and especially in this particular era.

TERMS.—$1200 must be paid to the auctioneer, just as soon as the property is struck off. Other terms made known at sale.

By order of PERCY PARKER.
